Pesach Festival Events

Pesach begins on the 15th day of Nisan, coinciding this year, with Monday evening, April 18. It is the first of the three major festivals with both historical and agricultural significance (the other two are Shavuot and Sukkot.) The primary observances of Pesach are related to the Exodus from Egypt after generations of slavery. This story is told in Exodus, Ch. 1-15. The name "Pesach" comes from the Hebrew root Pei-Samekh-Chet, פסח meaning to pass through, to pass over. It refers to the fact that God "passed over" the homes of the Jews when he was slaying the firstborn of Egypt.

Join us in observance of the Passover festival beginning with The Fast of the First Born, Monday, April 18, 6:45 am at Wornall. Services will be followed by breakfast sponsored by the Kort and Rogovein families in memory of their fathers. Sell your chametz (see the insert) then attend the burning of the chametz immediately following.

Torah Fund Luncheon to Feature Tribute to Debbie Friedman

An afternoon of outstanding musical entertainment is in store for those who attend the 69th Annual Torah Fund Passover Luncheon, Friday, April 22 at 11:30 am at Wornall. Music by the late Debbie Friedman will be performed by Hazzan Menes with accompaniment by Barbara S. Katz.

Hazzan Menes & Barbara Katz

Referred to as the "sweet songstress of the Jewish spirit," "the high priestess of Jewish healing" and "Jewish music's queen of song," Friedman recorded 19 albums during a professional career of more than 35 years. Originally influenced by American popular music of the "60's" and "70's", including Peter, Paul and Mary, Judy Collins, Joan Baez and Joni Mitchell, Friedman pioneered the distinctive development of contemporary American Jewish music with worldwide influence.

The theme of this year's campaign is "Kehillah Kedoshah Celebrating Community – Woman to Woman." Invitations have been mailed to all Sisterhood members. The reservation deadline is April 13. For more information, contact Judy Weinstein at 913-451-3331.

Lying in Unmarked Graves

Over the years, many beloved members of our community have been buried at Mt. Carmel Cemetery. The vast majority were blessed to have the means to prearrange their own financial needs in death or to leave behind loving family who are able to care for their permanent resting place. Sadly, however, this is not always the case.

Assisting the needy in their funerals is named in the Talmud (B. Shabbat 127a) as one of the mitzvot for which we receive reward in this life and in the life of the World to Come. It is true love and mercy, as the one you help cannot thank or reward you, and it is being done anonymously, with a pure heart.

As I prepare to leave Beth Shalom, I hesitate at the gates of our cemetery. We have a wonderful cemetery committee. There is a strong handful who have dedicated their time with our paid staff (Jim and Bob) to make sure that our loved ones' final home is a place of honor, dignity and memory. We have a perpetual care fund, a foundation, which does go a long way toward the routine maintenance of the grounds, but needs to grow.

Yet with all that, 28 of our loved ones, through no fault of theirs or their family, have no headstone and no means to be given one. They lie literally in unmarked graves.

K.C. Monument Company is generously willing to help us mark those graves at a cost of $400 per headstone. Bob Yarmo and David Sosland have taken on the challenge with me. A $400 donation will allow us to take care of one person, so that they will be remembered by those who pass by in years to come. Will you please support us as we keep faith with those whom we have laid to rest?

May their memories, and your tzedakah generosity, be a blessing for years to come.

In hope and memory,

Rabbi Robert Tobin

Transition Progress Update...

The Long Range Planning Task Force (LRPTF) has been working on a set of strategic imperatives (short and long term goals) to guide the congregation in the months and years ahead. Members of the LRPTF conducted small focus group meetings with a cross-section of congregants during the month of March, to get their feedback regarding the strategic imperatives. Utilizing this feedback, the LRPTF held a day long workshop on March 27 to further refine these proposals. The LRPTF plans to seek additional input from the congregation during the month of April prior to submitting their proposals to the Board in May. After the Board has reviewed the proposals, they will be shared with the entire Congregation.

Executively Speaking

Beth Shalom is Worth it!

That was the theme of my acceptance speech when I was installed as president of Beth Shalom. I knew that we had many challenges ahead. I also knew it was not going to be easy and I shared this with everyone present. I did not have all of the answers, but I asked everyone to stand (literally) with me to face our challenges together. It was a defining moment!

A lot has happened since then. We came together as a community and made some difficult decisions ranging from the closing of the Wornall Campus to the elimination of the Assistant Rabbi position next year. In addition, our Senior Rabbi made the hard choice to not renew his contract.

Other congregations could have been devastated by just one of these challenges, but not Beth Shalom! I have seen people unite like never before. Our terrific staff has pulled together to keep our programming, schools and events running smoothly. Congregants are volunteering. They are answering phones, handling mailings, organizing minyanim and participating on numerous committees that require countless hours. Communication is at an all time high through the use of mail, email, The Scroll, the website, etc. Your Board and its task forces are working tirelessly to ensure a smooth transition as we navigate the change.

We are moving forward. Our financial situation is improving slowly but surely. High Holy Day services will be at the JCC this year and plans are well underway to accommodate our ritual needs - including the needs of our B'nei Mitzvah families. Rabbi Cohen has stepped forward to be our interim Rabbi while we define our priorities and establish our goals.

Please remember that "Beth Shalom is Worth It" was never meant to be the solution to our problems. It was a call to action and I thank each of you for heeding that call. Whether you volunteer, attend a program, give a suggestion or renew your membership -- your dedication and support are inspiring. Our Beth Shalom community will endure!

Make Your Passover Seder Child Friendly

The Passover seder is the most widely observed home tradition by Jews around the world. Following the commandment "...to tell the Passover story to every generation" can be a fun and memorable experience for everyone. Here are some suggestions for your children to do to enhance your holiday:

- Make place cards and decorations; help set the table
- Help to make the charoset, mix salt water, wash the parsley
- Wear costumes that represent characters in the Passover story
- Before the seder write/make-up a

- skit about the Passover story and have everyone participate at the seder
- Sing favorite Passover songs at the seder
- Provide each child with an age appropriate Haggadah
- Make a bag of plagues; add toy frogs, ping pong ball for hail, etc.
- At the seder, in addition to wishing for "next year in Jerusalem" share your other hopes and dreams for the future

As I See It

By Bev Newman, Scroll Editor

Bev Newman

At the November Congregational Meeting Rosalyn Burnstein stated, "A sanctuary is anywhere there is a Torah and a group of people coming together to pray." Goldsmith Hall will soon be our sanctuary. In the hall there are already stained glass windows from 34th Street and one of our beautiful fiber wall hangings. Soon there will be an ark from 95th Street and more of the present sanctuary's wall hangings. Most important there will be a group of people coming together as a community with the common purpose of worshipping.

Yom HaShoah, Yom HaZikaron & Yom HaAtz'maut

The 2011 Yom HaShoah/Holocaust Memorial Service will be held on Sunday, May 1, 1:30 pm at the Jewish Community campus. In commemoration of the 70th anniversary of the destruction of the Jewish communities of Eastern Europe, this year's program will feature readings from first person accounts of Jewish life before the Holocaust and a moving candle lighting ceremony in memory of the six million Jews who perished. Steve Cole, son of Holocaust survivors, will chair the service, which will also include participation by the Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy choir, Boy Scout Troop 61 and the Jewish War Veterans.

Yom HaZikaron, the day on which Israel honors its fallen soldiers and war veterans, will be observed with a program on Sunday, May 8, 7 pm in the Social Hall at the Jewish Community campus. Scheduling Yom HaZikaron on the day before Israel Independence Day is intended to remind Israel and all of us, of the price paid for independence and what was achieved with the soldiers' sacrifice.

Yom HaAtz'maut, Israel's Independence Day, will be celebrated at Kehilith Israel, 10501 Conser, 5:30 pm on Tuesday, May 10. It celebrates the declaration of the State of Israel on May 14, 1948. It is celebrated, much like the American 4th of July, with parades, fireworks and family festivities. Watch for details.
