

Sisterhood Shabbat/Kaplan Weekend January 17-18

Meet Rabbi Aaron Alexander Our Kaplan Scholar-in-Residence

Our visiting Kaplan Scholar will be Rabbi Aaron L. Alexander, who is a published author, a sought-after speaker, and a dynamic teacher for all ages. A graduate of the University of Florida, the Conservative Yeshiva in Jerusalem and American Jewish University, Rabbi Alexander is the Associate Dean of the Ziegler School of Rabbinic Studies, where he was ordained in 2006, and Lecturer in Rabbinics and Jewish Law. He is a certified mashgiach and serves on the school's Committee for Jewish Law and Standards.

He contributed to the Walking With... series and text chapters to the first three editions of the JPS series, Jewish Choices, Jewish Voices. He also regularly contributes to the Huffington Post and the Shima Online Journal.

Rabbi Alexander recently introduced to the Ziegler School a new concentration for senior students, Halakhah, redefining the way in which passionate Conservative Rabbis can approach modern Judaism, utilizing a breadth and depth in Jewish Law. He created and maintains the Ziegler School's robust web-learning presence and also teaches Talmud and Rabbinical Literature throughout Los Angeles. He serves on the Clergy Caucus for LA VOICE - PICO, a national organizing network of diverse faith-based congregations.

Rabbi Alexander, along with his wife, Rabbi Penina Podwol Alexander, and their son, Ariel, spends his summers as Rabbi-in-Residence at Camp Ramah in California. As a founding staff member at Camp Ramah Darom, he has worked there for 10 summers.

God's Daily Calendar: Learn. Do. Teach

Genesis teaches us that we are created in the image of God, and Leviticus teaches us that we should be holy because God is holy. What does that mean, though, "to be like God." The Talmud actually provides for us a Rabbinic imagining of how God spends His day.

The Talmud (BT Avodah Zarah 3b) teaches us that for the first quarter of the day, God studies Torah. For the second quarter of the day, God brings justice to the world. For the third quarter of the day, God feeds the entire world. For the fourth quarter of the day, God teaches the souls of young children in heaven's preschool. For half the day, God is bringing Torah into action. For the other half of the day, God is either learning Torah or teaching Torah. It is impossible to minimize the importance of Jewish learning for every age. In any given week I am blessed with the opportunity to teach our members from age 2 to 92 – and every decade in between – and I can see the impact on our community.

Jewish learning is the great energizer and the great connector. Jewish learning builds identity, it gives Jewish self confidence, and it creates a common language between generations and between communities. With so much that divides the Jewish people in areas of practice, theology and politics – Jewish learning has the opportunity to bring us closer. We as Jews have a shared history and a shared destiny, and learning is the bridge between the two.

Because of the centrality of Jewish learning, I am so excited for our synagogue's evening to honor Ed Rose with the first Rabbi Morris B. Margolies Award for Excellence in Jewish Education. This evening will feature Leon Wieseltier, the Literary Editor of the New Republic. Rabbi Margolies' greatest legacy to our community (as Mike Abrams wrote in his article) was his commitment to Jewish education. Ed Rose's commitment to the Beth Shalom Preschool that bears his family name promises us another generation of Jewish learners.

Leon Wieseltier is one of the most engaging Jewish thinkers alive today, and is a champion of Jewish learning. The recipient of the National Book Award, and recently the Dan David Prize in Israel (similar to America's MacArthur Genius grants), Mr. Wieseltier will be speaking on "The Words We Lack: The Language of American Jewry". This promises to be an inspiring evening, and I look forward to sharing it with you.

The Sanford M. Dunn Scholarship Fund for Study in Israel

Applications are now being accepted for the Sanford M. Dunn Scholarship for study in Israel. Created in 1988 in memory of Sanford M. Dunn by his wife Patsy and children Daniel and Debbi, the scholarship is awarded on the basis of merit, not financial need, demonstrated by:

- A record of academic achievement.
- A bona fide proposal for study in Israel, as part of an established program or as an individual or original project.
- References from teachers, rabbis or similarly qualified individuals.
- Or any combination of the above.

Age of applicants is not a factor, and while they need not be affiliated with the Synagogue, first preference will be given to meritorious applicants from CBS. To apply: submit the above documents to substantiate your qualifications.

These documents must be received by the Beth Shalom Scholarship Committee no later than January 31st, in care of the Beth Shalom Religious School Office at 14200 Lamar Ave, Overland Park, Kansas 66223.

Additional guidelines for application can be obtained from the Beth Shalom Administrative Office or found on the Beth Shalom website: www.bethshalomkc.org. The recipient will be announced at the end of February.

Margolies Award is Fitting Tribute to our Beloved Rabbi

It has been a little over a year since the passing of our Rabbi and leader, Morris B. Margolies. Rabbi Margolies left a lasting legacy for Congregation Beth Shalom and its members. His deep intellect, passion for learning and spirited teaching inspired generations of students and congregants to continue and enhance their level of Jewish learning. Jewish education was Rabbi Margolies' great passion. I was recently reminded of his columns in The Jewish Chronicle devoted annually to Jewish Literacy. He challenged his readers to pass his "quiz" of Jewish knowledge that he believed every Jewish 7th grader should have the ability to do. Many of us failed to pass the quizzes, but those columns motivated us to increase our learning.

I can think of no better way to honor Rabbi Margolies' legacy to our Shul than through the Margolies Award for Excellence in Jewish Education. The Award is to be given to one who has significantly enhanced Jewish education in Kansas City. The inaugural award will be presented on December 8th, in the White Theatre to Ed Rose, a significant benefactor of our wonderful Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center.

We are most fortunate that renowned writer, thinker and longtime Literary Editor of the New Republic, Leon Wieseltier, has agreed to provide the address at our celebration. I want to thank Jen Paul, Harold Kaseff and their committee who have been hard at work planning this event. December 8th promises to be an evening of great learning and celebration.

I hope that you all will be able to join us.

There are many things which make our Congregation Beth Shalom very special including its rich history, its new spiritual leadership of Rabbi David Glickman and Hazzan Tahl Ben-Yehuda, and of course, the congregants. Over the years, the daily minyan has been an integral part of Congregational life.

For a period of time, the daily minyan was considered the sole province of the most senior members of the Congregation, those who were retired and "had the time to come to help make the minyan". However, during the last few years, more and more younger members of the Congregation who have completed the eleven months of saying Kaddish for a loved one have continued to help make the Minyan for at least one day or more each week. It is their way of expressing appreciation to those who made it possible for them to say Kaddish and enable others to do the same.

No one needs an invitation to join Minyan Maker but we would like to take this opportunity to invite each of you to become a member of our multi-generational Minyan Maker. To sign up, go to www.minyan10.com/bethshalomkc/login.php or click here.

More than 1,000 members of the USY community will come together, beaming with pride, full of energy and ruach. It will be a time of reunions of friends from USY summer programs, and the opportunity to meet the best friend you never knew you had!

What's up?

With Hanukkah over so early this year, the glitter and bling of Christmas may be noticed more than ever by your young child. Enjoy the lights because they are beautiful, but they can be explained by the following:

Birthdays are fun even when they are someone else's.

Christmas is someone else's holiday, but we can find beauty in someone else's party.

Just because we don't celebrate Christmas, we can still give to the JFS Food bank or adopt a family who is in need of holiday help and buy gifts for them.

Animal shelters are in need of supplies year-round for animal-loving families.

The joy of tzedakah and sharing is a year-round joy to be taught to young kids. This is a great time to introduce the concept of allowance and what to do with that money.

How about giving your child three different containers and decide on a percentage for saving, a percentage for Tzedakah, and a percentage for a future purchase of something special? Children can start understanding these concepts by the time they are three. This exercise is great for teaching values as well as math.

PRS Learning about Shabbat by Hosting Shabbat

Shalom! This month I want to share with you a very brief overview of what each of the grades is doing. The Kindergarten class has been learning about making Shabbat in the home as well as the mitzvah of caring for animals. They are slowly learning each of the Hebrew letters and their sounds. The 1st and 2nd grade students are reveling in learning their Hebrew letters and vowels. They also are learning about Kashrut, and recently went on a shopping trip to Hen House, where they learned about how to find the hashgacha, the symbol that tells that packaged food is Kosher. The 3rd grade class is continuing to learn how to write Hebrew in cursive and Shabbat morning davening skills. They are learning about Cain and

Abel. The 4th and 5th grade classes are working diligently on their Hebrew reading skills, and have received the Torah at Sinai when a special visitor, Moses, came to their class, handing each of them the Torah so they themselves could accept the Torah from him! In 6th grade, students continue to improve their Hebrew reading skills aimed at preparation for B'nei Mitzvah and are studying ancient Jewish History, starting from the destruction of the Second Temple. Our seventh grade students' studies are aimed at B'nei Mitzvah preparation in large part, but they also have their first Holocaust Studies class. The eighth, ninth and tenth graders have classes from which they can choose what they want to study, including poetry, Jewish ethics relating to current events, a class on relationships, the 7 Habits of Highly Effective Jewish Teens, advanced text studies about the holidays and a social action class.

Here what's happening in December:

December 4 –

Gotta Love Latkes 6:00-6:15 pm

December 13 – 6th Grade-hosted

Kabbalat Shabbat service 6:00-7:10 pm

December 18 – School Committee meeting 7:30 – 9:00 pm

COMING SOON: K-3rd Grade Shabbat morning program!

Editorial Comments

The weekend of November 9th and 10th was unforgettable. It was the installation weekend of Hazzan Tahl Ben-Yehuda as Director of Congregational Learning. Our Congregation exuded a feeling of warmth, friendliness and support. The pride of Hazzan Ben-Yehuda's family was evident. Hazzan Ben-Yehuda and Rabbi David Glickman are an amazing team. If you have either left CBS or haven't been to services in a long time, you need to come celebrate Shabbat with us. You will laugh, you will learn, you might even cry, but most of all, you will share in a feeling of warmth and being with family.

Recipe Request

Swedish Apple Pie by Rose Pittell Levine (Bev Newman's Mom)

Ingredients:

1 can 20-30oz
apple pie filling
1 cup flour
2/3 cup sugar
1 tsp. baking powder
1/4 tsp. salt
1 stick margarine
1 egg slightly beaten
1/2 cup walnuts or pecans

Instructions

Spread pie filling smoothly into a 9" x 9" pan which has been sprayed with pam. Stir together flour, baking powder and salt. Blend in softened margarine and slightly beaten egg. Stir to make a thick batter.

Drop batter from a spoon to cover the pie filling. Bake at 350° for 45 minutes until the apples are bubbly or the topping is brown. The pie may be served with whipped cream or ice cream.

Our Community

Grandmothers Against Gun Violence

A new group called Missouri Kansas Grandmothers Against Gun Violence (GAG) has recently formed here, with our CBS member, Judy Sherry as a co-founder. It is the first chapter of the national group: Cape Cod Grandmothers Against Gun Violence, which began as a result of the Sandy Hook Elementary School massacre. GAG is not against guns per se, but is against gun violence and is in favor of reducing it. Specifically, the group will focus on two goals: background checks for gun purchases and deeming gun trafficking a federal crime. As a 501(C) (3) organization, GAG cannot support particular candidates for office or particular political parties, but can support legislation which they believe will reduce gun violence.

Though you wouldn't know it from the name...the group is open to grandfathers and people who are not yet grandparents. We have members from both MO and KS, and many are members of our Congregation. If you are interested in learning more, contact Judy @ judysherry@kc.rr.com, or check our website www.moksgag.org.

Community Interfaith Service for 2014 Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Set for January 12

The 2014 Martin Luther King, Jr. Community Interfaith Service will be held on Sunday, January 12, 3:30 p.m., at Community Christian Church, 4601 Main Street, Kansas City, Missouri. The Southern Christian Leadership Conference and the Jewish Community Relations Bureau/American Jewish Committee are sponsoring the event and invite the community to celebrate the life of Dr. King. Judy Hellman, former longtime Associate Director of JCRB/AJC, co-chairs the Interfaith Service with Dr. Robert Lee Hill, Senior Pastor of Community Christian Church.

For Jews, Dr. King was a uniquely important ally in the fight against anti-Semitism and for a secure Israel. In 1964, he wrote, "As a group, the Jewish citizens of the United States have always stood for freedom, justice and an end to bigotry. Our Jewish friends have demonstrated their commitment to the principle of tolerance and brotherhood in tangible ways, often at great personal sacrifices... It would be impossible to record the contribution that the Jewish people have made toward the Negro's struggle for freedom – it has been so great." Dr. King worked to bring about a just society for all.

The theme for 2014 for the Martin Luther King, Jr. week celebration is: 50 Years and The Legacy Continues. For information on the Interfaith Service or other MLK week events, call JCRB/AJC at 913-327-8125.
