Walking Through the Valley of the Shadow of Death

The most well known psalm in our tradition is the twenty-third psalm. One of the most harrowing lines is about walking “through the valley of the shadow of death.” What is striking to me is what a very realistic portrayal of grief this is.

This short descriptor portrays grief as something that is dark (“shadow of death”). However, a shadow occurs because something is blocking the light – not because the light disappears. The darkness of grief is very normal, and it is also possible for grief to feel like a permanent darkness when inside. However, like with any other shadow, when the object blocking the light diminishes or moves, the light can return. This idea of difficulty that is gradually eased is also true with the idea of “walking through a valley.” Though the base of a valley is low, with effort, it is possible to walk through to the other side.

I have written before about how our daily minyan has been a source of comfort and inspiration to so many. Thanks to Amy Lieberman Pollack, and her mother, Floriene Lieberman, we have a new way that the daily minyan held at Village Shalom comforts through the Lending Library of Solace. After saying kaddish for Amy's father and Floriene's husband, George Lieberman, Amy sees this lending library as a lasting reminder to George's impact. Amy has reached out to educators, counselors and rabbis around the country to stock this library with the most relevant and useful books.

However, the only way this lending library will serve its purpose is if it is utilized. When somebody loses a relative, it is really difficult to reach out and to avail oneself of the resources that are available.

I would like to encourage you – yes, you – to help us be the best synagogue we can be by inviting friends you have who have lost someone to join you for minyan to say kaddish. Even if you are not a regular minyan attendee yourself, it is so much easier for a mourner to attend if he is brought there by another friend. Also, at that time, I encourage you to peruse the new Lending Library of Solace to find a book that might help your loved one journey “through the valley of the shadow of death.”

Our presence in each others' lives is how we make the joyful time more joyful and the difficult times manageable. If you have a suggestion or would like to contribute a book to this library, please email Amy at: Liebermanlendinglibrary@gmail.com. The hope is that as people observe a yartzeit, finish sheloshim (the thirty day mourning period), or complete eleven months of kaddish, they will donate a book in memory of their loved one.

If you would like to register for a day or two a week, or a day or two a month to be present for daily minyan, please visit: <http://www.minyan10.com/bethshalomkc/login.php>.

Chatan Bereishit

Al Beitchman has been chosen as our second Simchat Torah Honoree and will be Chatan Torah. Al's main focus at CBS has been his 62 year membership in Boy Scout Troop 61, our second oldest auxiliary organization. He serves as Coordinating Organizational Representative between the troop and the synagogue. He is a member of our congregational Board of Directors, the Cemetery Committee and the Scholarship Committee. Al also makes weekly phone calls to remind our members of upcoming yahrtzeits. He has been awarded numerous scouting awards from both National and local Boy Scouts of America including the Scoutmaster's Award, Award of Merit, Silver Beaver Award and the District Council Award. He is a Medicine Man in the Tribe of Mic-O-Say.

Al came to Kansas City from Berkeley, California at the age of 4. He graduated from Paseo High School, served in the U.S. Marines and attended Kansas City Junior College. He and his wife, Barbara, owned Perferred Products Incorporated. He is the father of Dr. Kevin Beitchman, Marci Whiteman and Kimberly Kort and the grandfather of six.

Executively Speaking

Thank You, Thank You, Thank You

Ah, it is the start of gorgeous fall weather, and beautiful colored leaves will soon dot our landscape as we all enjoy more manageable weather. The High Holidays are now winding down, and I hope that we are all sealed for a happy and healthy year.

As always, it was so good to see you all at the holiday services. I trust that you enjoyed them as much as I did; everyone who worked this holiday season for us did an incredible job. When all the choreography that goes into the holiday planning is completed, it is time to thank all of you, our members, for your willingness to show your tickets for the sake of safety.

I would be totally remiss if I did not thank those who worked tirelessly behind the scenes with me to insure that everything went and continues to run smoothly every single day. So, to:

- Martha Hoffman who is my left and sometimes right hand, and is the person who strives to make every day brighter for those around her. She handles membership management, IT and all that I throw at her with grace, flair and finesse.

- Stephanie Williams, for allowing me to plan extraordinary events with her. It is my pleasure to work beside you.

- Bob Copeland, Juan Garcia, & Juan Pablo Nava are the best team of kind people who work exceptionally hard to make us feel at home wherever we pray.

- Our cemetery staff, Jim Jones and Bob Pratt who keep Mt. Carmel Cemetery beautiful, You give us a place for memories to linger...

- Pam Fite, our Bookkeeper, thank you for working with me. All your assistance is so appreciated.

- Jill Goldstein, you bring to the table years of CBS wisdom, and I appreciate all that you do every day. I especially love the calendar that you made just for me.

- Dahlia Berger, you create a Scroll that we can all be proud of.

- Bev Newman, Scroll Editor extraordinaire and the driving force behind the Scroll.

- Judy and your staff, thank you for allowing me to share the fun of having a great preschool to brag about.

- And lastly to Rabbi and Hazzan, I applaud your contribution to making CBS the place to be.

Making Temporary Feel Like Home

October, in this hemisphere, is synonymous with autumn, and to the Jewish soul, autumn is synonymous with Sukkot. Sukkot is the 8-day celebration of the transient nature of human creation, and the cyclical nature of God's creation. Let me explain what I mean.

God created the whole world from mere words, and while everything changes and while living things die, the grand scheme, the background against which everything else lives or dies, continues. God's creation continues and is the stage on which we live our lives. And while our lives are not forever, we have a distinct purpose – to make this world, and each other's lives better while we are here! So how does this translate to Sukkot?

Every year we build a sukkah to remind us of the temporary homes we lived in while wandering in the wilderness for 40 years. We build the sukkah knowing full well we're going to take it down in a week's time, pack it up and put it away for next year. So perhaps we would say – let's not waste time making it pretty; after all, it's just up for a week!

Judaism teaches us that we must honor and beautify even the mitzvah that is utterly temporary. The Sukkah, the home most of us don't live in, can be a simple hut – but when we fill it with beautiful art, hand-made pictures and hangings and twinkling lights, we can truly feel at home even in our temporary hut!

Our children created decorations and will be enjoying them throughout the holiday including Sunday morning, October 4, when PRS students will be "Snackin' in the Sukkah". If you have not already enjoyed a meal in a sukkah, there are a few days left to do so – bring a picnic-style meal and fulfill a mitzvah. I hope you will truly enjoy our sukkah. I look forward to celebrating with you. Chag Sameach!

Our Preschool's Organic Garden

For the last six years our preschool has had an organic garden which our students help plant 3 times a year: spring, summer and fall. The children plant, water and weed the garden. Their favorite part is harvesting and eating the crops for snacks. The organic garden has been a wonderful addition to our curriculum! We have enjoyed cucumbers, sweet potatoes, baby red potatoes, green beans, tomatoes, radishes, lettuce, pumpkins and so many more vegetables. This coming spring we will plant raspberry bushes! It has been great for the children to see that vegetables come from seeds and need water and sunshine to grow into our food that helps us develop and stay healthy! When the children pick vegetables and wash and help cut them up and prepare them for snack, they eat veggies they might not have eaten if they were just served to them.

For an Eagle Scout Project, Jacob Flekier built benches and a storage container to enhance our garden area.

KCUSY Hosts EMTZA Region at LTI

What a pleasure it was to host EMTZA Region's Annual LTI - Leadership Training Institute. USYers from across the region travelled to Kansas City to learn some of the secrets to being an EMTZA Region USY leader. That being said, home hospitality conventions are crazy!! On one hand, we have to find places for all of these youth to sleep - I cannot thank the Abrams, Ben-Yehuda/Saidel, Flekier, Ginden, Glickman, Brockman/Goldberg, Goldenberg, Klein, Krinsky, Pellegrino,

Ruben, Shapiro, Shapiro and Simon families enough for opening their homes to our USYers. It is also challenging to have home hospitality when we don't have a lot of space. CBS was so welcoming to our youth, and we loved sharing Shabbat with over 200 people Friday evening and Saturday morning! It was crowded, which felt really good!! Our Kiddush Corps was so easy to work with and let us add to an already amazing meal. Our parents and local caterers made sure everyone was fed well throughout the weekend! It was inspiring to watch the USYers daven and have uplifting ruach sessions, see them fill the classrooms with learning, play outside on our beautiful property and flip Goldsmith Hall like pros (several times!). They learned from each other, grew their leadership skill sets, heard from innovative voices in the world of Jewish leadership, and spent an amazing Shabbat with their peers and fellow leaders from around the region. It was also a great opportunity to make new friends as well as reunite with old ones. Thank you, CBS, for making this such a wonderful experience for our future leaders!

Mt. Carmel Volunteer Day, Sunday, November 15

Join us Sunday, November 15 from 12 pm - 4 pm (with a rain date of Sunday, Nov. 22), to paint, clean, weed, rake and more at Mt. Carmel Cemetery, 5529 Ditzler Road. We will spend the day beautifying the cemetery. This would be a good opportunity for groups or individuals to earn community service credit. For more information or to sign up, contact Bruce Luchen at 913-220-7518 or bluchen6297@aol.com.

New Torah Stands

We would like to thank Harold Kaseff, Bernie Ullman, Mike Rogovein, Rhea Salasche, Connie Simon, Martha Hoffman, Elaine Levine and Bob Copeland & his staff for graciously designing and creating our four new Torah Stands that were used on the High Holidays at the Jewish Community Center. Two were graciously donated by Joan March in memory of her parents. One was donated by the Library Minyan, and one is still available for naming.

For more information contact Elaine Levine at elvine@bethshalomkc.org or 913-647-7293.

Committee Jam on November 8

Come to CBS on Sunday, November 8 at 9:30 am for the Committee Jam. The jam is an open house led by Board Members/Committee Chairs that will allow the congregants to know what is going on in each area of the synagogue. There will be representatives from all committees present from Membership to Ritual and all those in between. This will provide a forum for questions and answers, and offer the opportunity for sign up to work on the committee of one's choice if there is availability. A light continental breakfast will be served.

Parashat Hashavua Group

Parashat Hashavua is an ongoing, monthly program that takes place on every third Shabbat of the month at 9:00 am in the Board Room.

The goal of this program is to engage its participants in a stimulating discussion of the Weekly Torah Portion in a friendly atmosphere, where the difference of opinions is respected, and questions are encouraged. The participants enjoy the deep level of discussion and Kabbalistic insights into the text.

The next session will take place on October 17 when Parashat Noach will be discussed. Everyone is welcome.
