From the Rabbi's Study

We are in the Relationship Business

When synagogue and church boards evaluate the success of their houses of worship, some will remark that we need to treat the organization “more like a business”. The critical question is, what business are we in?

Our business is the relationship business. There are many men and women in sales of one sort or another who will tell you the same thing – they are in the relationship business. However, we are a little different.

For a person in sales, being in the relationship business allows you to sell a different product. For us, the relationship is both the journey and the destination.

But here's the tricky thing – the congregants are both our sales force and our customer base. With our size, to be successful in the relationship business, we all need to be selling, and all need to be buying simultaneously.

The only way we can both create and maintain meaningful relationships is if every single congregant in our kehillah – our sacred community – is hungry to build and maintain meaningful relationships.

What does it mean to be “hungry”? In the business world, it means hustling to find every potential client so that you can put food on the table. In the synagogue business it means hustling to make sure that everyone is connected to somebody in the shul and that there is nobody left without a place at a table.

I have two entry points for our relationship business that are connected to hunger: volunteering to serve food with “Lechem,” or volunteering to serve food with “Kiddush Corps”. Lechem serves food at a shelter one day per month, and members of our synagogue serve all of us at Shabbat Kiddush each week when lunch is not catered. But remember – we are ultimately not in the food service business. These are just opportunities to create and “feed” relationships.

Our goal is for all our members and guests to have a meaningful, safe and happy High Holy Day celebration. All members in “good standing” are eligible to receive tickets.

Security at the Jewish Community Center Campus

This year more than ever, security will be extremely tight at the JCC.

- Tickets will be checked at the door by a police officer. Please have your ticket with your name on it in your hand to gain entry.
- If you do not carry a ticket for religious reasons or you have forgotten it, the police at the door will have a “Members in Good Standing” list. If your name is not on the list, you will not be allowed to enter.
- For the safety of all concerned, additional police officers have been hired.

2014 Ticket Policy Important Security Changes

- Every member will receive two tickets, one for Rosh HaShanah and one for Yom Kippur.
- Entry for children 25 and under does not require a ticket when accompanied by a member with a ticket.
- All family members over the age of 25 must have a ticket; guest tickets cost $150 per person and are good for both holidays.

Rimon Service – Friday, Sept. 26-10:30 am - Social Hall -Main door entry to the JCC only.

This is an opportunity for people of all ages to come together for a “bite sized” service that is also delicious, juicy, flavorful and colorful. It is only 90 minutes in length, is filled with song, discussion, learning and energy.

- If you are in arrears, you are not in “good standing”. Contact Elaine Levine, Executive Director to clear your account.
- We do accept guests who are members in good standing at other Conservative synagogues provided their synagogue has contacted us for a ticket request.
- If you have not received your tickets by September 10, contact the office. Please understand we cannot clear any accounts at the door.

The dress is “respectfully casual”. This service is open to the community.

Non-members who would like to attend will need to call the synagogue or email us at info@bethshalomkc.org. Your tickets will be available for pick up at our office, ID is required.

Executively Speaking

Message from the President

In the next few weeks we will celebrate Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur 5775. I'll address the congregation for the first time as President, during which I'll focus on the state of CBS. And, Rabbi Glickman will reach out to ask us to be generous in our High Holy Day Appeal. Even though that's the Rabbi's role, that's what I want to focus on here in the pre-High Holy Day Scroll.

CBS's membership stands at 719 families, four more than when I wrote in the July Scroll. For the third year in a row, we have a balanced budget, half of which comes from dues. Another big chunk, $70,000 to be precise, is budgeted to come from our High Holy Day Appeal. Board members will be calling congregants in September to ask for pledges for this annual fundraiser. The good news is that we as a congregation have been responding generously in recent years. Having made many of these calls myself, I am pleased to report that most of the congregants I've talked to were actually expecting the call and looking forward to it!

Let's do it again this year. Do you know what it means to raise a few thousand dollars more than we've budgeted through the generosity of our members? It means we'll likely balance our budget again in 5775. More importantly CBS has a "strategy-driven" budget. That means that as a kehillah, a sacred community, we determine what our priorities are and we then generate the resources to implement them. Dues and High Holy Day Appeal are a majority of those resources.

As they say, "we are all in this together". We're implementing our strategic plan, investing in our priorities, and fulfilling our commitments through dues and High Holy Day Appeal. Thank you in advance for being generous again this year.

L'shana tovah.

Norman Kahn, Jr MD

High Holy Day Appeal

Please join your fellow congregants in supporting the 2014 High Holy Day Appeal! The annual appeal is a vital part of our financial plan, and donations to the appeal are crucial to maintaining the level of programming and support services CBS provides.

This year we are offering you the option to either give to the General

Appeal Fund, or to direct your donation to a specific area of need. Donations may be made in one of the following ways:

- 1) Send in the bottom portion of the High Holy Day Appeal letter that has been mailed to you;
- 2) Donate online at www.bethshalomkc.org; or
- 3) Place a sticker on your High Holy Day ticket indicating your pledge amount, and give it to one of our designated "Appeal Collectors" during Yom Kippur services. Thank you in advance for supporting the 2014 High Holy Day Appeal! The funds raised will impact every area of synagogue life.

For more information or questions, please contact Ernie Rosenthal, High Holy Day Appeal Chairman, at ErnieRos@yahoo.com or 913-491-8924.

Gabbayim to Be Honored

Gabbayim are an integral part of our synagogue worship as well as entire fabric of our synagogue community. Their dedication and help make our tefillot – our worship services – warm, meaningful and heimish. They guide our congregation through life-cycle events, both joyful and painful.

On Shabbat morning, September 20, we will be recognizing all of the gabbayim during services. Following services, a special Kiddush is being sponsored in their honor.

The entire congregation is invited to join us for this very meaningful morning. We look forward to everyone sharing in the acknowledgement of the important role this group of lay leaders provides for our congregation.

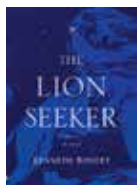

Apples & Honey Dish is available for sale in the Sisterhood Gift Shop.

Book Club Meets October 22

Sisterhood Book Club will meet Wednesday, October 22 at 7:00 pm at Merna Siegler's home. The book to be discussed is The Lion Seeker by Kenneth Bonert. In the tradition of the great immigrant sagas, this first-time novelist brings us Isaac Helger, son of Lithuanian Jewish immigrants, surviving the streets of Johannesburg in the shadow of World War II as he makes his way from red-headed hooligan to a searching adolescent to a striving young man. For further details or to be added to the e-mail list, contact Rowena Turk at 913-649-7098 or at turk@kc.rr.com.

Sarah Peltzman Adult Education Classes

Look for a new, inspiring and invigorating Sisterhood Sarah Peltzman Adult Education program coming soon. Classes begin Thursday, October 30.

Past Sisterhood Presidents gather to Celebrate Evelyn Gibian's Special Birthday.

2nd Row: Marna Dolginoff, Sarah Small & Evelyn Gibian

3rd Row: Noreen Greenberg & Sandi Rozen

Sisterhood Luncheon Reminder

Sisterhood cordially invites you to attend a delicious luncheon and fall fashion show, Tuesday, September 16, 11:30 am in Goldsmith Hall. Both adult fashions by Chicco's and children's fashions from Mommy Shop will be modeled. The cost is $15 for paid sisterhood members and $20 for guests. Both dues statements and invitations have been mailed.

For more information, contact Cathy Newman, cnewman0923@gmail.com or Elaine Levine, elevine@bethshalomkc.org, Chairpersons of the Day. Program Vice-Presidents are Kim Matsil and Rhea L. Nadler.

Sisterhood Achieves International Recognition

The Women's League for Conservative Judaism Jewels in the Crown Award was established five years ago to recognize member sisterhoods who have displayed excellence in education, cultural programming and social action, and who strongly identify with Women's League. This year there were 121 recipients along with 47 three time winners (2010, 2012, 2014) including Beth Shalom Sisterhood.

Our sisterhood was also recognized as one of seven sisterhoods internationally and the only one in our Intracontinental Region which exhibited a high level of creativity and substance in programming. We were acknowledged for our May 10 program, The People Vs King David. King David, long celebrated as one of Israel's great heroes, was put on trial for adultery (with Bathsheva) and murder (Uriah, her husband). This was an extraordinary night of courtroom drama and history as attorneys Michael Abrams and Stewart Stein argued the case before Judge Arthur Federman. Rabbi David Glickman and Hazzan Tahl Ben-Yehuda also participated. All attendees served as the jury. The chairwomen of the evening were Phyllis Abrams and Renana Abrams.

Herbert R. Jacobson

June 20, 1929 - August 1, 2014

We note with sadness the recent death of Herbert R. Jacobson, past president of CBS, 1975-77. Herb and his brother, Eliot, ran the family construction business, A.D. Jacobson Company for 37 years. Active and involved in Kansas City's charitable and business worlds, Herb was also president of Jewish Vocational Services. Herb and his wife retired to Palm Springs, California. He is survived by his wife, Loreen, two sons; Craig (Lynn) and Tom (Susan), daughter Patty and 6 grandchildren.

New Beginnings

This year, September is a bit of an odd duck. On the one hand, it is the beginning of the school year, both secular and religious. On the other hand, it coincides with Elul, which is the last month of the Jewish year. Rosh Ha-Shanah does not begin until the night of September 24th this year. So while it feels like the beginning, it is also still the month that leads up to the beginning. This duality makes for a tremendous amount of excitement, but also a sustained tension. We open new books at the same time that we are deeply considering the year behind us.

For Beth Shalom's educational goals, this September is a time to begin again and begin completely anew. We have spent the summer reflecting on what and how our children studied last year, and there are changes in both the content and in the style of teaching that will happen at our Polsky Religious School. Plans are afoot for learning opportunities for 11th and 12th graders, to be unveiled soon, and there will be plenty of opportunities for all of the congregation's children to interact at Shabbat, holiday, tzedekah and educational programs throughout the year. I am very excited for the year to come, and I hope you will engage with our school and our educational programming in the coming year. There will be many opportunities to join committees and help out at programs. Jump in! Shanah Tovah U'Metukah- wishing you a sweet, good year to come.

The High Holy Days are upon us!

We are excited to have Jamie Diamond back to lead our young children's service! Linda Salvay will provide the music! I know this will be a wonderful spiritual service for our younger congregants. This 45 minute service, which is geared to the 2-5 year old crowd along with a parent, starts at 9:30 am in the HBHA upstairs chapel at the JCC. The community is invited to join us on September 25 & 26 and October 4.

The High Holy Days, a new school year and fall are a great time to talk to your kids about new beginnings! Kids are growing and changing. What are your expectations, dreams and goals for your children?

Talk to your children about "being the best you can be" - the best daughter, son, sister or brother. How about undertaking as a family a new tikkun olam (repairing the world) project? When you work together as a family, you teach your children your own values. Children are never too young to learn.

City Wide Selichot Program

This year's city-wide Selichot program is designed to help worshippers prepare spiritually for Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur, will be held on Saturday, September 20 at 8:45 pm at Congregation Beth Torah.

The evening will begin with a dessert reception followed by Havdalah at 8:45 pm and a session with local rabbis at 9 pm examining the prayers for the High Holy Days. The Selichot service itself will begin at 10:10 pm. Along with local rabbis, the service will be led by Beth Torah Music Director Emily Tummons, our own Hazzan Tahl Ben-Yehuda and a volunteer community choir. Vocalists interested in being in the choir should contact Emily Tummons at Etummons@bethtorah.org or 913-498-2212, and should be available for rehearsals Mondays September 8 and 15, from 7:20 to 8:15 pm.

The service is sponsored by the Rabbinical Association with support from the Jewish Federation of Greater Kansas City.

Parashat Hashavua

The Parashat Hashavua group engages its participants in dynamic and challenging discussions of the Weekly Torah Portion. The aim of this study is to uncover the deeper meaning of the concepts and ideas of the Parashah while making a connection between the events of the Parashah and the current events taking place in our lives and the world at large. Our next meeting will take place on Saturday, September 20, at 9 am in the Conference Room, when we will discuss Parashat Nitzavim-Vayeilech.

Recent Troop 61 Activities

Congregation Beth Shalom's Troop 61 recently went on a High Adventure trip to visit Mount Rushmore, the Badlands, and Custer State Park. Troop 61 in front of Mt. Rushmore

Borscht by Natasha Olinetchouck

- 3-4 cloves of garlic diced or pressed
- 1 medium yellow onion chopped
- Half a head of white cabbage shredded
- 3 medium potatoes peeled and cubed
- 2 large carrots peeled and shredded
- 3 medium beets peeled and cut into small strips
- 1 lb stew meat
- 5-6 quarts of cold water
- 3 bay leaves
- 1 tbsp vinegar
- 1 tbsp sugar
- 4 oz. tomato paste

Instructions

Prepare beef broth by boiling rinsed stew beef in 5-6 quarts of water with the bay leaves. Before the water boils, skim the foam with a slotted spoon to make sure the broth is clear. Boil for an hour or until the beef is tender. Borscht can also be prepared with chicken or vegetable broth. Cook the beets covered in a small pan with a little bit of water, 1 tbsp of vinegar and 1 tbsp of sugar for 25-30 minutes on low heat.

Sauté the shredded carrots, chopped onion and garlic in a pan with a little bit of vegetable oil until the onions become translucent. Add 4 oz of tomato paste, sauté for another 10 minutes. Add a little bit of broth if the mixture is too thick.

Add the cubed potatoes and shredded cabbage to the broth, and cook for another 15-20 minutes, until almost tender. Transfer the beets and carrots and onions mixture into the pot. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Let it sit for 15 minutes before serving. Garnish with chopped parsley.

Steppin' Out Welcomes Rita Stark & Don Warner

Sunday, October 26, is the next Steppin' Out program for CBS members and all Sisterhood members, singles and couples, 60 and older. (Your friends are also welcome.) The evening begins at 6 pm with dinner in Goldsmith Hall followed by entertainment from vocalist, Rita Stark and solo pianist and accompanist, Don Warner.

Rita, a singer and entertainer in the St. Louis and Kansas City areas since the 1960's, performed for various venues with her late husband's (Charles Wasserman) orchestra and also sung accompanied by piano or guitar, for private parties. Musical styles include big band music from the 1940's, show tunes and rock and roll.

For over fifty years, pianist Don Warner has delighted Kansas City patrons at numerous public settings and private parties. Don plays a wide range of music from the 30's to the present-light rock, Beatles, Dixieland, Latin and show tunes.

Your check made payable to Steppin' Out is your reservation. Please mail your check for $12 per person, along with your contact information, to CBS, Attn: Steppin' Out, 14200 Lamar, Overland Park, KS 66223.

Deadline for reservations is October 20. For further information, please contact Linda Lessner, 913-897-0122 or llessner@kc.rr.com.

Editorial Comments

Peter, our children, Neil and Cathy and Felice and Josh, and our grandchildren would like to wish the entire CBS community L'Shanah Tovah Tikatevu. We hope this new year will be one of good health, happiness and involvement in our kehillah - sacred community. We have several different worship services for the High Holy Days, and I hope that everyone will find a service that is fulfilling.

New programs, events and classes are on the horizon this coming year. Hopefully, each and every congregant can find a niche within our community whether it be synagogue, Kiddush Corps, Sisterhood, Men's Club, religious school, early childhood education or USY programming. Volunteers are always needed and welcomed. Looking forward to seeing you at Beth Shalom!
