We are continuing to transition to our home at Lamar. As summer progresses we will see more and more of our art, the Simchah Tree and the Yahrtzeit plaques moved. Soon we will be surrounded by many of the objects that are familiar to us as part of CBS. Many people, starting with those who chaired and were members of the various committees and those who worked to help on Mitzvah Day, have worked hard to make the transition happen.

In addition to helping with the initial set up of chairs in Goldsmith Hall, Boy Scout Troop 61 helped with the moving of prayer books and Chumashim for services. Everyone needs to be thanked for a job well done. Each day the Lamar building looks more and more like our religious home.

From the Hazzan's Study

The Spirituality of the Days of Awe

Judaism is a subtle religion. It is filled with gray areas and unanswered questions. There is ambiguity and paradox in our texts. Tensions between old and new, individual and community, God and mankind create the energy which we call spirituality. Spirituality is not the outpouring of emotion for the universe expressed as loud clapping or sorrowful wailing. Rather it is the continued engagement in the conversation of why we are here and how we are meant to live. Spirituality is being in the struggle. You can choose to be in the struggle, or you can choose to wait for the struggle to be over.

Elul and the Days of Awe are exhausting because we are constantly challenged to be part of the struggle. We are challenged to make sense of what we do and why we do it. We are challenged to take our texts and reconcile the paradoxes and ambiguities with our experience on earth.

If we are lucky, we come out of the High Holy Days able to live another year - we write ourselves into that Book. And if we are not lucky, if we fail to make sense of our purpose and fail to accept the "not-knowing," then we languor in the dark place without hope and without the energy to perfect the world.

Israel was born out of struggle. Jacob wrestled with an angel and came away both injured and blessed. When we truly engage in the questions of our existence, we cannot escape unscathed. But that is our path to enlightenment, and that is our task in this season. Don't avoid the struggle. Question the text and question your life so that you may emerge from the confusion and frustration clearer, stronger and, in short, blessed.

Learning as a Community "Education is an unfinished symphony." -Aranne

The Morris B. Margolies Center for Adult Studies will begin its offerings Thursday, August 25, 7:30 pm with a Minyan Leadership Workshop where you can learn to lead daily or shivah minyanim. In September, join Hazzan Menes for the Elul Institute on Thursdays, September 15 and 22, 7:30 pm at Lamar. Elul Institute is an educational program helping us to prepare for the Days of Awe. In the first week we will delve into the nature of God for the High Holy Days: Is God Just? How does God express Compassion and Mercy? We will be exploring God's actions through the Torah and liturgy and together we will grapple with how we can ask for justice and mercy. The second session will be devoted to the music of the High Holy Days. The Hazzan will review some of the traditional melodies and teach a few new ones to which we will sing along on Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur. No musical background is needed. Please join us, be sure to contact Jill Goldstein to let her know you will attend the above sessions, 913-647-7281 or jgoldstein@bethshalomkc.org.

This Fall there will be many Adult Education opportunities. Watch for more information on our website, as well as in the adult education brochure which will be available during the High Holy Days. From Hebrew to Sarah Peltzman Classes to special offerings, there is something for everyone. Mark your calendar now for Sunday, October 30, 7:30 pm when you will have the opportunity to hear a unique presentation by Dr. Carla Klausner and Rabbi Scott White on the Middle East. This promises to be an interesting, educational and thought-provoking evening. Join us for this special event. More details will follow.

Ritual Notes

from Rabbi Alan Cohen

► The Ritual Committee, on June 30, 2011, reached a decision to return to the previous policy regarding the use of unhekhshered cheeses at Beth Shalom. Based upon a study of the responsa of Rabbis Isaac Klein and Kassel Abelson, the Ritual Committee takes this opportunity to inform the congregation that any processed cheeses may be used (hekhshered or unhekhshered) within the synagogue and synagogue kitchen as long as no animal products are contained within those cheeses. (This statement refers to cheeses only and does not automatically sanction the use of other products that contain cheese (e.g. mac & cheese.) Regarding such products and in regard to all questions, please consult Rabbi Cohen, Hazzan Menes or the Ritual Committee.)

Thank you, Beth Shalom

Todah Rabah, we thank you very much...
Todah Rabah, for all that you do!
Todah Rabah, we thank you very much...
Todah Rabah, we appreciate you!

My children and I learned this song years ago at Beth Shalom Nursery School. I can't help but smile as I hear Miss Judy's voice singing in my head. This song expresses what I want to write to each of you today.

- Thank you to each and every one of you who renewed your membership in Beth Shalom this year.
- Thank you to the 66 families who donated at a Pillar level – and thanks to the family who increased their dues level to Pillar status this year.
- Thank you to 4 of our congregants who told us that they have included CBS in their estate planning. This is since January 1 of this year!

Your financial support is critical and is much appreciated!

- Thank you to the 18 families who are celebrating their child's B'nei Mitzvah with us this year.
- Thank you to everyone who participated in Mitzvah Day, the 225 members who attended our June Congregational meeting and the 60 members who came to the pool party.
- Thank you to all the volunteers. This ranges from our Sisterhood and Men's Club to committee members and Board members.

Your time and involvement makes us a community! You make a difference!

- Thank you to our staff, our teachers, and our education directors for doing so much!

- Thank you to Hazzan Menes and Rabbi Cohen for caring.

Thank all of you for being my Beth Shalom family!!

5772 High Holy Day Preparation Updates

שנה טובה

Send a Greeting for the High Holy Days

Congregants will have the opportunity to send greetings gratis to our CBS Community in the September Scroll. Examples: Bev and Peter Newman and Family send New Year's greetings to the clergy, the officers and board and entire CBS Community or Berenice and Roger Haberman wish a Happy Healthy New Year for their sons, daughters and grandchildren. You may send more than one greeting. Please keep them brief, and send your greetings to Andi Wildman at askw@bethshalomkc.org. The deadline is Thursday, August 5.

Elul Institute

Prepare for the High Holy Days by attending Elul Institute on Thursdays, Sept. 15 and 22, 7:30 pm. See page 2 for details.

High Holy Day Information Packet

New this year, the informational packet for the High Holy Days 5772 will be available online by Thursday, August 25. All congregants with a valid email address on file will receive an email notifying them that the information is available along with directions to access the information. This packet will contain schedules, babysitting information, youth programming, guest ticket information, and your lulav & etrog order form. For those who do not use email, we are planning to mail the hard copy packets by August 25. Tickets and parking passes will be mailed to the entire congregation around September 14. Please contact Norman Levitan at 913-647-7283 or nlevitan@bethshalomkc.org by September 23, if you do not receive your tickets or information packet.

High Holy Day Appeal

It's time for our High Holy Day Appeal. Our goal this year is to raise $75,000 and to have 100% membership participation. The High Holy Day Appeal is a vital part of our financial plan. We need your support. High Holy Day pledge cards will be mailed at the end of the month, then donations may be made online, by mailing in your pledge card, speaking to a board member on the phone or indicating your pledge on your High Holy Day ticket and giving it to an usher during Yom Kippur services at the JCC. The success of this year's campaign depends on your pledge! For more information, contact the High Holy Day Appeal Chair Jen Paul at jpaul@kcpaul.com.

Do A Mitzvah... Join the Lechem Committee and Feed the Hungry!

Lechem
2011 Serving Dates
Wednesday, August 31
Monday, October 31
Sunday, December 25

The Lechem Committee serves hot lunches seven times a year to the inner-city community in Kansas City, Kansas. Over the past 28 years, our congregation has prepared over 78,000 meals. Volunteers are needed to both cook meat in their homes prior to the serving date and to help prepare and serve in the kitchen the day of the lunch.

Lechem Committee Chair, Marcia Eveloff and her administrative assistant, Sandi Lerner have retired after 28 years on the job. Todah Rabbah to Marcia and Sandy for their years of service. Welcome to our new committee co-chairs Cindy Daniels and Marcy Rydell.

Funding for this project comes from donations to the Beth Shalom Lechem Fund. For more information or to volunteer, contact Marcy Rydell at scorpiomr@juno.com or Cindy Daniels at 913-451-5852.
