Choosing Judaism

In a World of Infinite Choices

Late Night Study House

Rabbi Glickman's presentation will be about Choosing Judaism in a World of Infinite Choices. We are living in a world of infinite choices, with more information available than any generation in human history. The Jews are less the "Chosen People" than the "Choosing People." Why, in this day and age when one can choose anything, should we continue to choose Judaism?

SNL (Saturday Night Learning)

Come and learn with some of Congregation Beth Shalom's Best and Brightest on Engaging Torah Topics.

Jewish Values on Campus – It's not Just about Shabbat and Israel

Thousands of Jewish high school seniors will graduate in the next month and fan out across college campuses. Being a Jewish university student is more complex than it ever was. I have written, spoken and taught about the many issues facing university students that are most often connected with Jewish values: namely maintaining (or exploring) Jewish practice and defending Israel in an increasingly hostile environment.

One area where Jewish voices are not yet as strong as we need to be is on the growing issue of sexual assault and rape on campus. This is why I believe the conversations we need to have with our graduating seniors of both genders are about the importance of respect and sexual consent.

Judaism is not a prudish tradition. While being definitely pro-marriage, Judaism does not shy away from the joy that comes from physical and sexual intimacy. However, it is also a tradition that for thousands of years has come out strongly in favor of consent between intimate partners. Jewish law compares rape to murder and has forbidden marital rape since the time of the Talmud over 1500 years ago. That is why safe sex is about more than simply using a condom, contraception control, and protection from sexually transmitted diseases. Safe sex today also means physically and emotionally safe sex, and not simply the absence of pregnancy or disease.

Admittedly, it may seem that having this conversation before high school graduation is too late. After all, close to 50% of high school students are sexually active. However, the social dynamic on campus is radically different than in high school, and it is the first time our children are making these choices completely away from home.

We need to have conversations with our graduating seniors about what we expect of them in their behavior on campus, and the way they behave on dates, at parties or in dorms. This, too, is a reflection of our people's values. The conversation need not be prudish. It need not be scolding, but it should reflect a voice of expectation. In the same way we have hopes for our children to achieve academically and professionally, we also want them to have healthy relationships with their life (or dating) partners. Try asking your child if they know anyone who's ever gotten into a scary or troubling situation and what they think about it. Ask if there's anything making them nervous. And for your sake and theirs, remind them you are only a phone call away.

These conversations about respect and consent need to happen with our sons and daughters. Not only do I not want our daughters to be raped, I do not want our sons to become rapists. Of course we want to prevent sexual assaults and rapes, but these incidents no longer are only perpetrated by strangers. Too often on college campuses, sexual assaults occur between young adults who know each other and who might have fun "party-ing" together. Alcohol might play a part as it certainly can affect decision making. This is another great topic for conversation with our sons and daughters.

Let's let our kids and universities around the country know that Judaism believes in treating human beings with respect. In accordance with our tradition, let's take a strong stand in favor of consent, respect and healthy relationships.

Executively Speaking

What Is Happening at CBS

If you've been reading my column, you will remember my references to the Pew study, which reported on what successful congregations, like Beth Shalom, do well. This month, I'm going to focus on recent examples of reasons two and three: being warm and welcoming, and engaging congregants.

Earlier this spring, I had the privilege to be at Tot Shabbat when we had record participation. So what do a lot of tots bring with them (besides parents)? Contagious energy and smiles! We know how many smiles Chavi Slusky brings to Sunday morning minyan by herself – just think of how much fun it is to have more than forty at Tot Shabbat! That's a welcome example of how we bring warmth to our Kehillah.

On April 12, our once-a-year fundraiser (and fun-raiser), Cabaret, was packed! So let's pat ourselves on the back for exceeding our goals, first during the High Holy Days pledge drive, led by Ernie and Susan Rosenthal, and now by selling out Cabaret.

Thank you to Brian Brockman who helped to raise over $20,000 for our annual fundraiser. And thanks go to all of us – it is because of all of our generosity that we plan to end our fiscal year with a very close but balanced budget.

Coming up, look for activity from our new, energized, "Green Shul" Committee, under the leadership of Sheila Sonnenschein. Many congregants are engaging in this effort to look at ways we can recycle and reduce our carbon footprint. This initiative is just starting, so we'll talk more about it soon.

Plan to come to the Congregation's annual meeting and installation of the Board of Directors, Sunday, June 28 at 1:00 pm, when we'll describe what our Kehillah is up to. See you there!

USY: The Year in Review

KCUSY has had an amazing year! Our programs have led to, and come from, astounding leadership, hard work and strong bonding. Our membership this year has remained steady and strong. We have had many new people try USY and explore the remarkable things we have to offer. At each convention we brought a strong group of devoted and excited members that participated in and enjoyed the weekends our region had to offer.

Kadima had many participants at several mixed and individual programs. The Kadimanicks created friendships with the older USYers as well as friends their own age. We had 12 Kadimanicks at Kadima Kinnus, and each one of them referred to it as the "best weekend of my life". They came home with new friendships and with plans to visit with these friends as soon as possible.

This year our Religious Education programs were the most fun and active that they've been in a while. Our highlight was our "Birthday Party" for the Torah where we played "pin the yad on the Torah" and decorated Torah shaped cookies. We then joined our Shul for the Torah reading and Simchat Torah Service.

Our SATO work this year was focused on hunger. We collected canned goods and learned about hunger within our own Jewish community and throughout the world.

The yearly Purim Carnival was a great success in spite of a snow storm! Our co-chairs were eager to plan an outstanding day for the youth, and are excited to continue their leadership in the chapter.

Additionally, our Israel Programming was very educational. We learned about current issues and events in Israel, asked questions, played games, danced to popular songs and ate delicious food!

As usual, KCUSY had a big presence on social media, with arguably the funniest Instagram captions, communicating future programs, or sharing the fun we had at a program.

Our Freshman leadership was a highlight of our year. Not only did we have several participants in the Emtza Region Leadership Committee at respective conventions, but our freshman representatives were present and a huge part of planning many programs for our chapter, even taking on tasks and programs individually. Just as always, we couldn't be more grateful for the amazing support KCUSY has from Emtza, Stef, Beth Shalom, our parents, and most importantly each and every KCUSYer.

Shalom, shalom, u'lehitra'ot. I feel like it was only yesterday that the new school year was beginning, and it is already time again to say "have a great summer!"

This has been a wonderful year of learning, of socializing and of building our Jewish muscles. We've studied Hebrew language, the Hebrew alef-bet, and Torah stories.

We have learned about the geography and the culture of Israel, and about the Jewish life cycle. We've learned about the history that led up to the Holocaust, and the experiences of members of our own community who survived the Holocaust.

We have sung and prayed together, and have celebrated Shabbat and a year's worth of holidays. We have raised tzedakah funds and deepened meaningful friendships. As we begin to greet the summer, plans are already underway for next year!

RFECEC In Review

It is hard to believe we are ending another school year, 2014-15 has been quite a year. Our accomplishments include record attendance at each of our monthly Tot Shabbats and fabulous turn outs at our Friday Night Light Programs.

In the classroom, our Preschoolers have enjoyed daily art projects, Hebrew, music and adventures in cooking and science as well as play and learning galore! Special activities have included: Percussion Magic where 50 kids were playing the drums and following directions with big smiles on their faces, concerts, snack and lunch in the sukkah, the zoo mobile, a bird show, fire safety education, bounce houses, science and sensory experiences, a string quartet from the Symphony, Laughing Matter juggling mime and comedy, planting an organic garden and caring for the garden. At the end of this month, the PreK students and their parents will go on a field trip to the Sea Life Kansas City Aquarium, and the entire school will wrap up the year with the end of the school year picnic! It has truly been a wonderful year!

We have a few more openings for fall 2015. If you know of a family looking for a great preschool with our special activities, please refer them to me for a tour and information about our preschool. If they give us your name when they enroll their child, we will give you a $100 gift card for helping us tell the community about our amazing school.

Shabbat Kids' Club and Tot Shabbat

Shabbat Kids' Club and Tot Shabbat will be held on May 16. Both Tot Shabbat and Shabbat Kids Club will begin at 11 am with a "pre-service nosh". Tot Shabbat will meet in the lower library reading area, and Shabbat Kids Club will meet in Room 114. The two groups will come together for Ein Keloheinu and go upstairs to Goldsmith Hall for Adon Olam. Tot Shabbat and Shabbat Kids Club is partially funded by the Eugene and Shirley Novorr Tots for Torah Fund. For more information, contact Shira Zigler at shiramichele@yahoo.com for Shabbat Kids' Club or Baree Nottberg at bnottberg@yahoo.com for Tot Shabbat.

Cheese Blintzes

Batter Ingredients:

4 eggs
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup water
1 package vanilla sugar
Pinch of salt
1 Tbsp. oil
1 cup flour
1/4 cup sugar

Filling Ingredients:

1/2 pound farmer cheese
4 ounces cream cheese
4 Tbsps. honey or maple syrup
juice of 1/2 lemon
1 egg yolk

Directions:

Batter: In a large mixer bowl combine eggs, milk, water and blend well. Gradually add flour, then both sugars, salt and oil. Beat well until there are no lumps in the batter.

Filling: Combine all ingredients in a bowl and beat well. Or combine all the ingredients in a blender container and blend until smooth. To Assemble Crepes: Prepare batter and filling. Using a paper towel or basting brush, apply a thin coating of oil to a 7 inch skillet. Place skillet over medium heat until skillet is hot but not smoking. Ladle approximately 1/3 cup of batter into the skillet. Tilt pan to swirl the batter so it covers the bottom of the skillet. Fry on one side until small air bubbles form, and top is set. Bottom should be golden brown. When done, carefully loosen edges of crepe and slip out of skillet onto a plate. Repeat until all the batter is used. Grease the skillet as needed.

Turn each crepe so that golden brown side is up. Place 3 tablespoons of filling on one edge in a 2 1/2 inch long by 1-inch wide mound. Roll once to cover filling. Fold the sides into the center and continue rolling until completely closed. Heat 2 tablespoons of oil in the skillet and place each crepe seam side down in the skillet and fry 2 minutes on each side, turning once. Yield is approximately 12 blintzes.

Display Case in Goldsmith Hall

We have a new opportunity to publicize what is going on at CBS. The lighted double shelved case in Goldsmith Hall has been made available for use in 60-day increments to all congregational departments, sisterhood, men's club and any programming within the congregation. Currently Boy Scout Troop 61 is honoring two men who have been instrumental in the functioning and growth of the troop, Don Weinstein and George Lieberman. When you attend services or are in the building, stop by Goldsmith Hall and view the tribute. The case will be available for use again on June 1. For more information, contact Elaine Levine at 913-647-7293 or elvine@bethshalomkc.org.
