Yizkor on Passover – A Forgotten Time to Remember

Passover is a time that is all about memory: memories of our grandparents' recipes, memories of favorite seder stories from years past, memories of times when our people survived slavery throughout the ages.

Much of our community's Passover celebration comes through participating in a Seder and remembering the story of the Exodus. Maybe, your family has special memories of how you survived on Passover in unique circumstances. I have a favorite memory of surreptitiously eating matzah sandwiches in the grand lobby of a fancy New York hotel in Times Square, only to look around and seeing everyone who was in the lobby also eating their brown-bag matzah sandwiches.

What we often forget, though, is the observance of Yizkor on Passover. Yizkor is a sacred rite to remember those whom have passed on. We say the Yizkor prayer on the final day of Passover, the second day of Shavuot, Shemini Atzeret (the 8th day of Sukkot one day prior to Simchat Torah), and of course, Yom Kippur. Most people know about Yom Kippur, but are not aware of the other Yizkor remembrances.

By having our year punctuated by Yizkor, we are able to remember our loved ones within a community of prayer once during every season. Yizkor forces us to take time throughout the year and remove ourselves from the daily routine to recall those who came before us. Additionally, our sages believe that by mentioning our loved ones in synagogue and doing mitzvot in their memory at Yizkor is a way to continue to give uplift to their souls.

I remember in the garment district of New York City, that there used to be store-front synagogues that only opened on Yizkor days. They would have just the Yizkor service – no other prayers – multiple times throughout the day, so businessmen and garment workers could sneak away for a half hour and say Yizkor for a parent.

This year, I want to focus on building up our community of people who come to say Yizkor on other holidays other than just Yom Kippur. When a Yizkor holiday (other than Yom Kippur) falls on a weekday, we always have an early service so people who cannot get off work can still come to synagogue and say Yizkor.

To make this a time of community, we will be having a special enhanced lunch on the 8th day of Passover. This way, you can not only take time to remember your loved one who passed on, but you can connect with the living members of our vital community. I know that we are still over six weeks away from Passover – but I wanted us to not only remember our grocery shopping, cleaning, cooking and eating – but also mark on our calendars the time to say Yizkor.

Please join me on Tuesday, April 18th for these Yizkor Services. We will have both a 7:00 am service and a 9:30 am service, with the lunch following the later service.

Nominating Committee for 2017-19

The CBS Nominating Committee for 2017-19 is comprised of the following: Peter Cabell, Cindy Daniels, Art Federman, Karen Gerson, Allison Scharf Glickman, Alan Jacobson, Harold Kaseff, Jason Krakow, Bev Newman, Miles Ross and Shira Zigler. Norm Kahn, Jr. is the chair of the committee. The committee is in the process of nominating eight board members to fill the positions of those members retiring in June 2017. The new board members will be elected at the annual congregational meeting to be held in June.

Evening Minyan Attendees Needed

The CBS evening minyan (in coordination with Ohev Shalom) which meets at Village Shalom, Sunday through Thursday evening at 6:00 pm, needs congregant participation to insure that those in mourning or observing a yahrtzeit have a minyan in order to say Kaddish. Besides doing this mitzvah for those in need of a minyan, it is an opportunity to create community among congregants and other attendees. To sign up go to Minyan Maker on the CBS website.

Process for Building a Sacred Place for Worship

By now you all should have seen my letter that went out indicating that the Location Task Force has made a recommendation to the Board of Directors to start the process to build a sacred space. This is exciting news for our congregation as we have made the determination that we will be planting our roots at our current home. I want to thank the Location Task Force, under the leadership of Gina Kaiser, for their work. The Task Force had a very deliberate process and explored many possibilities during their five year tenure before determining it made the most sense to stay at our current location and build a sacred space. I also want to emphasize that we are at the very beginning of the process, as the team is working to find an architect who will help with determining our needs. There will be plenty of opportunities for congregational input. I want to assure everyone that we will not begin building or renovating until we have sufficient pledges to cover the construction costs.

There is also a lot going on with our congregation in the short term. I'm especially looking forward to our

Saturday night (March 11) Purim celebration, and hoping to see all our congregants in attendance. The Sunday morning Purim celebration (March 12), which will be great for children of all ages, will also be an event not to be missed. Our USY Purim carnival (March 5) is also an event not to be missed, as I'm always excited to see all the kids playing the games, and our USY setting a great example.

I'm always impressed with our congregation and am honored to serve.

Our Preschool is a Busy Place

Fun activities are always happening at the Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center. We have an entertaining and busy learning community for our students. We would like to highlight a few of our recent happenings.

Percussion Magic with Johnny and Adam Pierce brought their interactive rhythm & music show to our preschoolers. They taught the children about different percussion instruments from countries all over the world. From a gong to many types of drums, the kids loved playing the instruments and learning all about them and their sounds!

We learned about fire safety with tubs of dress up and pretend play materials. We culminated the unit with a presentation by a fire fighter who dressed up and showed the kids how fire fighters stay safe protecting us! "The Bird Lady" brought Wings of Love to our school and taught the kids about many different types of birds who come from the rain forest. The children loved the birds!

Every Friday we sing with Hazzan Ben-Yehuda, and Rabbi Glickman tells the children a story. Each week we get to sing to anyone who had a birthday that week. We love Shabbat singing!

Sisterhood Calendar Campaign

The 5778/ 2017-18 Sisterhood Calendar Campaign, our major fundraiser, has begun. The calendar/directory is complimentary to all congregants, non-congregant Sisterhood members and advertisers and will be available once again at Rosh HaShanah Services. Ad forms have been mailed. If you do not receive an ad form, please contact us. Each ad or tribute you place in the calendar helps us attain success. For a nominal fee we will place a tribute to your B'nei Mitzvah, Confirmant, High School or College Graduate. When you support the calendar ad campaign, you are supporting RFECEC, PRS, USY, the Lechem and Chesed Committees, PrayerWorks, Jewish community programming and local and national Jewish charities. Thank you in advance for your support. Please complete your mailed ad form and return it with your check payable to Beth Shalom Sisterhood by April 6. Save us a phone call, and send your check today.

Please direct any questions to Berenice Haberman, 913-894-6657 or bshaberman521@gmail.com. Be a part of our fundraising endeavor!

Lena's Homemade Mandelbrodt

Purim is just around the corner. Most people think of Hamantashen when you mention Purim, but an "alternative fact" is that Hamantashen runs an extremely close second to Lena's mandelbrodt.

Sisterhood is now taking orders for our homemade mandelbrodt, and these orders will be ready to pick up on March 8, prior to Purim. Just think how great these would be in your Shalach Manot baskets. Order forms for mandelbrodt are available in the CBS administrative office, the Sisterhood Gift Shop, the preschool office or online at <http://bethshalomkc.org/events/sisterhood/lenas-homemade-mandelbread/>. You can drop off the order form at the administrative office and place it in the envelope on the counter marked "Lena's Mandelbrodt Orders", or mail the order form to William Shapiro, 14305 Hadley Street, Overland Park, KS 66223.

If you have any questions, call Bill at 913-558-4089.

SH Book Club Meets April 26

Sisterhood Book Club will meet on Wednesday, April 26 at 1:30 pm at the JCC in Conference Room B on the second floor across from the elevator. The club will discuss City of Secrets by Stewart O'Nan. This timely moral thriller of Jewish underground resistance in Jerusalem after World War II, follows the story of one survivor, Brand, who tries to rebuild his life after losing everything in the war.

For more details or to attend, contact Linda Lessner at 913-897-0122 or at llessner@kc.rr.com.

Chronic Pain Management Group

Do you or anyone you know experience "chronic pain"? This is pain that is always with you. "Acute pain" is the body's response to an injury, such as a cut finger or a toothache.

Please join Dr. Suzanne Lange, retired Clinical Psychologist, from 1:00 to 2:30 pm each Wednesday at CBS beginning on March 1. Be willing to learn new and different methods that can help you manage chronic pain.

These methods are alternatives to taking medication that leaves you feeling drugged or groggy. Each participant is asked to donate $1.00 each week to Beth Shalom Sisterhood.

What have you got to lose? Think of what you can learn. Email Dr. Lange at suzvick@yahoo.com or call her at 785-841-0919 to enroll today. The body may hurt, but the soul can continue to sing!

Torah Fund Luncheon

Everyone is invited to join Sisterhood on Friday, April 14, in Goldsmith Hall to celebrate the success of our 74th annual Torah Fund campaign and enjoy a delicious Passover luncheon catered by Kim's Kreations. Hors d'oeuvres and wine begin at 11:00 am in the Grand Hall.

The afternoon's entertainment will be provided by Linda Salvay, well-known local singer and composer. Invitations have been mailed. Guests are welcome. Both reservations and donations (including previous pledges) are due by March 30 in order for contributor names to be included in the program. Checks should be made out to Torah Fund.

This beautiful Passover tradition was begun by Anne Hadas, beloved wife of Rabbi Gershon Hadas. Torah Fund luncheon chair is Joyce Shapiro. For more information contact Joyce, 913-685-9704.

Mi shenichnas Adar, marbim b'simcha! As we enter Adar, our joy increases!

I will be singing this song this month with everyone from preschoolers to the Shabbat crowd on Saturday morning as we dress the Torah scroll. But why is this the theme song for Adar? What is so amazing about Adar that everyone who welcomes Adar gets an increase in joy?

Well, for starters, who can help but be happy once spring is in the air? Though I doubt this is what the author of the song had in mind... Rather, this song alludes to the holiday of Purim and the countdown to our physical and spiritual redemption from Egyptian bondage and slavery.

Modern Jews celebrate Purim in many ways. Many of us give gifts of food to each other as well as gifts of food and money to those in need. We will be sharing a Purim feast together on Sunday morning, and our community will offer two opportunities to hear the megillah in its entirety, once in the evening and once in the morning, in keeping with tradition. We will celebrate with a party wherein one could become so full of joy (and possibly also drink) to the point where one might be confused between "hurrah Mordecai" and "boo Haman."

PRS Students Lace Up Their Skates

The Polsky Religious School is off to the roller rink, and Hazzan Ben-Yehuda, who tells us she has superior skating skills, is leading the way.

Everyone is invited to join us on Sunday afternoon, March 26, from 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm for a PRS group skate party at Skate City, 10440 Mastin St in Overland Park.

The cost of the skates and two hours of slipping and sliding is $6.25 in advance and $7 at the door. Daredevils wishing to rent speed or inline skates will be charged an extra $4.

For more information, contact the school office at 913-647-7286. The deadline for reservations is Wednesday, March 22, 2017.

A Perspective on Kadima Winter Shabbaton

Winter Shabbaton 2017 was definitely an interesting experience. After the four hour drive starting at 8:00 am, the convention began, and the magic ensued. Although there were only 90 people there, I think I got a lot closer to more people than at other larger conventions. We had the typical convention programs such as Shabbat services, sichot (discussions), and slowach (song session). Each was memorable and contributed well to the experience. The discussions were interesting and thought-provoking. Lastly the ninja warrior course was an adventure and the all Em-tza dodgeball match was a great ending as the underclassmen were cheated out of a victory against the upperclassmen. Like always, the convention ended too soon, but it felt complete and definitely ranks with some of my favorite USY conventions ever.

Membership/Kadima Vice President

Passover in the Community

Congregations Help Feed the Hungry for Passover

CBS joins Jewish Family Services, The Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City and other area congregations in collecting Passover food items. Many families will be helped through our participation in the Passover food drive.

Our congregation has chosen to collect donations of "Kosher for Passover" matzah ball mix and grape juice. Drop off items at the synagogue through March 27. Monetary donations are also being accepted by check or online through the JFS site <http://www.jfskc.org/>. For more information about the Food Pantry, please contact Jo Hickey, JFS Food Pantry Director at 913-327-8257 or email her at jhickey@jfskc.org.

The following two programs are sponsored by the Rabbinical Association of Greater Kansas City and supported by area congregations. Principal funding for these programs is provided by the Community Legacy Fund of the Jewish Community Fund of Greater Kansas City. For more information, visit kcrabbis.org or contact Annette Fish, Rabbinical Association Administrator/Program Director, afprogram@aol.com or 913-327-4622.

Passover Seder Meals-to-Go Returns

Overwhelmed with the idea of preparing your Passover Seder meal(s)? Under supervision of the Vaad Hakashrut of Kansas City, Kosher Connection will prepare a Seder 'Meal-to-Go' available for purchase. Order forms can be found at www.kcrabbis.org, at CBS and the Jewish Community Campus. All prepaid orders must be received by Monday, March 27. Pay by credit card at www.kcrabbis.org or check: Rabbinical Association, 5801 W 115, Box 113, Overland Park, KS 66211.

Orders must be picked up Monday, April 10, noon to 2:00 pm, at CBS (kitchen entrance at most northern area of parking lot). Items will be in containers suitable for warming in the oven, along with simple heating instructions. A community second night of Passover Seder will not be offered this year.

Community Passover University Offers Ways to Create an Awesome DIY Seder

A Community Passover Seder University will be held Thursday, March 30, 6:45-9:00 pm, at the Jewish Community Campus. Area clergy will share unique ways to Create an Awesome DIY Seder that will add a little pep into your Seder experience. Six adult interactive workshops will be offered and will provide opportunities to personalize your Seder experience. Registration is required by March 24. Reservations can be made online at www.kcrabbis.org or by mail to the Rabbinical Association, 5801 W. 115 Box 113, Overland Park, KS 66211. A listing of the workshops can be found at www.kcrabbis.org or pick up a registration form at CBS or the Jewish Community Campus.

Mint Chocolate Chip Cake

Ingredients for Cake:

- 2 cups white sugar
- 1 3/4 cups all purpose flour
- 1 cup unsweetened, Dutch process cocoa powder
(I use Hershey Special Dark)
- 1 1/2 tsp baking powder
- 1 1/2 tsp baking soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 eggs
- 1 cup milk
- 1/2 cup vegetable oil
- 2 tsp vanilla extract
- 3/4 cup boiling water

Ingredients for Frosting:

- 2 sticks (1 cup) salted butter, slightly softened
- 1/3 cup heavy cream
- 2 tsp mint extract
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- Drop or two of green food coloring
- 4 cups powdered sugar
- 2 oz semisweet chocolate, finely chopped

Instructions:

Preheat oven to 350°. Grease and flour 2 eight or nine inch pans. In the bowl of a mixer, combine sugar, flour, cocoa powder, baking powder, baking soda, and salt. Whisk together until fully combined. Add eggs, milk, oil, and vanilla and beat on medium speed for 2 minutes. Scrape the sides of the bowl, then slowly stir in the boiling water. Pour batter evenly into prepared pans and bake for 30 -40 minutes, until tops of cakes spring back when you lightly touch in the center. Remove cakes from oven. Allow to cool in pans for about 10 minutes, then remove to finish cooling on wire racks.

Prepare frosting: In the bowl of a mixer, beat butter, cream, and both extracts on medium speed until smooth. With mixer speed on low, slowly add powdered sugar and mix until just combined. Add food coloring and increase speed to medium high and beat for about one minute, until frosting is light, smooth, and fluffy. If frosting is too thick, add another Tablespoon or two of cream and beat for 30 more seconds. Add chopped chocolate and mix on low until incorporated. Frost cooled cake.

Notes:

Refrigerate cake until serving. Do not sub chocolate chips for chopped chocolate in frosting -- it will make the cake very difficult to frost. I used bakers chocolate, but feel free to use your favorite dark chocolate bar. To make frosting the cake easier, wrap the cakes in plastic wrap and or refrigerate for an hour or two before frosting. It will make the cakes more firm, which is easier for handling and more moist.
