

Please join us for Congregation Beth Shalom's Sukkot Festivities!!!!

Monday, October 17th — Day 1 of Sukkot

11 am Services in Library Reading Area

with Rabbi Glickman followed by

Cookie Decorating & a kid-friendly, Pizza Bagel Kiddush Luncheon

Rabbi Glickman would like you to bring your favorite stuffed animal to the service!!!

Tuesday, October 18th — Day 2 of Sukkot

11 am Services in Library Reading Area

with Rabbi Glickman followed by Cupcake Decorating &

a kid-friendly, Pizza Bagel Kiddush Luncheon

Please bring a kite so we can fly them after lunch!!

SPECIAL!!!!

The first 15 people to RSVP for both days of Sukkot will receive their own Lulav and Etrog!! You can take them home after services on the 2nd day!

Great for use in your home,
or for show and tell at school!!!

NEW THIS YEAR!!

There will be a separate Sukkot activity for our older youth! We will be building Sukkot out of graham crackers, icing, candy and other goodies!!

Hope you can join us!

RSVP for Sukkot Day 1 & 2 by October 13th
to Stefanie Williams - swilliams@bethshalomkc.org!

*If you are concerned about missing school, Rabbi Glickman will gladly write the school a note explaining that the first two days of Sukkot are a religious festival similar to Rosh HaShanah!