Beth Shalom's Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center provides high quality education within an enriched Jewish environment. We are devoted to cultivating the creative spirit in your child through meaningful experiences, personal development and growth.

We promote student development in learning the social and academic skills needed to prepare your child for kindergarten entry. Instruction is developmentally appropriate for every age level in an environment that nurtures a love of learning and Judaism.

2017 PRE-KINDERGARTEN PROGRAM

- We offer expanded hours to allow for more learning opportunities
- Math & science are integrated with life skills as demonstrated in our "Kids Cook Monday" lunch & learn program plus many other opportunities
- Our curriculum is researched based and child focused in the areas of for literacy, handwriting, math & science

WHY CHOSE OUR PRESCHOOL

- Our Faculty – we hire teachers that have superior education credentials coupled with the ability to provide a safe and nurturing environment in low child to teacher ratio classrooms.
- Safety and security are one of our top priorities. We are a lock down facility that has in place many security plans to assure that your child is in a safe environment.
- We offer state of the art indoor & outdoor playgrounds for year round fun
- Optional extended hours with enrichment programming for the child that wants / requires more learning
- Parent and family friendly with many opportunities to join with your child at various programs plus we offer a 5% tuition discount for siblings
- All children attending our school will need to be vaccinated so that we provide a healthy environment for all.
