

Passover, One Woman's Viewpoint...

I always look forward to celebrating Passover, and personally, I really have not figured out exactly why. Perhaps it signals that spring is approaching or it is the closeness of family as we gather around our Seder table. The sights, sounds and smells still evoke pleasant thoughts of years past, of family no longer with me, but it also affords me the opportunity to foster new traditions as our family dynamics change in this fast paced world.

Passover allows us to observe, celebrate and to be proud of the richness of a holiday that centers on our home as a sacred place and our family and friends as the characters of our very own personal story as we stop to retell another story of long ago.

"A Women's Prayer for Passover", anonymously written, brings to light the joy, the work and the quiet prayers that Jewish women mutter as we prepare for this holiday. I am happy to share this with you.

"Adonai, let not the line at the supermarket be too long. Let the produce be fresh and crisp and let there be just one more jar of Kosher-for Passover mayonnaise left. You see, I forgot there is school next week, and tuna fish falls off matzo sandwiches so easily when it is not held together with enough mayonnaise."

"G-d please let everyone be well for the two Seder nights, and while you are at it, would you please make it for the rest of the year too? And if you do not make me so busy, I promise that I will devote my leisure to working for charities and Sisterhood and things like that."

"Almighty Adonai, let the children behave at the Seder table, for I have labored so long to make everything right and lovely. Suffer not their little fingers to spill wine on the tablecloth and carpeting, it never seems to come out. And let them pipe the Mah Nishtanah in such abundant glee and wisdom as to make the car pool to Hebrew School worth it."

"G-d of the World: let each year our table be fuller not only with your bounty, but with people—all our loved ones, dear friends, new babies and young lovers shyly brought home for approval."

"G-d Of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob and of Sarah, Rebecca, Rachel and Leah; let me not in the hustle and rush of preparation; forget what Passover really means."

And with our prayers hopefully answered, I wish for you, the Congregation Beth Shalom family, to enjoy the strength of family, friends and companionship, the power of faith, and the magic of renewal and hope this Passover.

Thank You to CBS from KCUSY

KCUSY would like to thank everyone for your unbelievable efforts toward the success of the Purim Carnival! The number of volunteers is inspiring! Your generosity helped make this year's carnival incredibly successful and lots of fun! The proceeds will enable KCUSY to continue to expand its valuable programming throughout the year.

The Carnival donations are used in many different ways. Perhaps most importantly to the USYers, these donations help to pay for our dinners every Wednesday night!! These funds are also used to offset the cost of EMTZA regional events. We have also been able to subsidize programming for some of our "up and coming" KCUSYers (Gesher and Atid). These are just a few examples, but most importantly, you are serving as a dugma (example) for our youth. They see that so much of our programming is possible due to your generosity, and in turn, several of our recent graduates were new sponsors this year!

Again, we cannot thank you enough - your donations allow our youth to fulfill their "wish lists" and follow their dreams!

Spring Kallah

The 2012 Emtza Regional Spring Kallah will be held in Ames, Iowa, Friday, April 27 - Sunday, April 29. KCUSY members Emi Adler and Daniel Goldberg will be finishing their terms and Daniel and Sam Abrams plan to run for the 2012-2013 board. Contact Stef Williams for more details.

Executively Speaking

Two Years Blink By

I can't believe this is my last Scroll article as your president. My term certainly has flown by! So much change.....so much progress!

As I thought about these last two years, I decided to read my past articles and speeches. I was looking for a common idea or theme.... and this is what I found: I did my best to be honest and transparent. I encouraged congregants to share their opinions and to participate. I truly appreciated all the volunteers and staff who make Beth Shalom special. And I shared my positive vision of the future.

I also looked for a phrase that could describe my presidency. A friend mentioned my Hebrew name, Rafi Nesher, a name I chose over 25 years ago. She explained that Rafi and refu'ah share the same root word that means "to heal, cure or bring toward." She also said that sh'laimah means "whole or complete." I realized that we say Refu'ah Sh'laimah every Shabbat at services when we sing the Mi Shebeirakh. Refu'ah Sh'laimah literally means "to heal towards wholeness."

Refu'ah Sh'laimah! That was the connection I was looking for! As your president, I did my best to bring Beth Shalom together so we can be whole. As you know, each of us doesn't always agree, but all of us believe in Beth Shalom. We have made some difficult decisions and now have begun to heal. And, as we heal, we will be stronger.

Our new president, officers, Board of Directors and clergy will lead us from here. Our volunteers and staff will move us forward. Our congregation will continue to unify and enrich our lives. And our future looks bright!

Thank you for allowing me to be a part of your Beth Shalom family!

Passover Fun!

This month the RFEC is suggesting some fun Passover activities to keep young children involved in the Seder:

- Have the kids make name place cards
 - Let your children help you peel eggs, wash parsley, make charoset and do anything they can help with to be a part of the preparations.
 - Utilize a child friendly haggadah if you have preschoolers at your seder.
 - Get plastic toys that are similar to the plagues such as frogs, little balls for hail and sunglasses for darkness. See what other ideas the kids have for plagues.
- There are great kid songs to be sung for the Seder. If your children have been in preschool at Beth Shalom, they will know many. Assign different families different parts of the Seder or a song or two to lead.
- At the end of your Seder have everyone pour a little wine or grape juice in a cup and share a wish for the future and then take the juice/wine outside and pour it into a flower bed or garden to grow.

The more kid friendly the Seder, the more meaningful for the children, and the happy memories of Pesach will live on in your kids' minds forever! Chag Pesach Sameach!

Puppy Love

*Adapted from Kimberly Winter,
Stern's article in 435 South Magazine*

Brianna Katz is turning her love for animals into a mission to Stop Puppy Mills! A third-grader at the Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy, daughter of Beth Shalom members Vicki and Gary Katz and the granddaughter of Barbara S. Katz and Salli Katz, Brianna learned from her reading about the horrors of puppy mills. She says, "puppy mill dogs are kept in small, wired, dirty cages, eat once a day, and have lots of babies. That's not okay." When she discovered that Missouri is a national hot spot for puppy mills, she began a petition drive focused on stopping them, and already has over 300 signatures. Brianna wants to bring her concerns to the attention of Missouri's government as well as to the White House, and she wants our help. Copies of Brianna's petition can be signed at the Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy office and in the office at Beth Shalom. Let's help her accomplish this mitzvah!

Children with brain tumors should fight for their dreams, not their lives.

In November 2011, Finnegan O'Keefe, one of the students in the RFECEC was diagnosed with a PLGA (Pediatric Low Grade Astrocytoma) brain stem tumor. His teachers knew they had to do something to help this sweet boy, so they decided to plan an amazing event that could help to raise the funds needed to find a cure and give him a future.

Please join us on Sunday, April 29, 2012 from 2-5 pm at St. Michael the Archangel Catholic Parish (142nd and Nall Avenue) as we host the first HEADS UP for PLGA local fundraiser benefiting the PLGA Foundation. The afternoon will include lots of fun activities, a silent auction, and will feature local musicians Funky Mama, Mr. Stinky Feet and Dino O'Dell!!

Admission for children 3 and over will be $10, 2 and under are free!

For more information, to make a donation or to become a sponsor, please visit our website at headsupforplga.shutterfly.com or follow us on Facebook at Heads Up for PLGA. In addition, "Team Fighting Finnegan" yellow bracelets are available in the school office for $1!

The 2012 Yom HaShoah/ Holocaust Memorial Service will be held on Sunday, April 22 at 1:30 pm in the White Theatre at the Jewish Community Campus. Rita Murra

Sudhalter, daughter of Holocaust survivors, will chair the program. The Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy and Beth Torah choirs, Boy Scout Troop 61 and the Jewish War Veterans will participate. In commemoration of the 69th anniversary of the Warsaw Ghetto uprising and the 49th anniversary of the dedication of the Memorial to the Six Million, the program will feature short readings from CollectiveVOICES, the Midwest Center for Holocaust Education's writing workshop for children and grandchildren of Holocaust survivors. The service is Coordinated by the Midwest Center for Holocaust Education, Jewish Community Relations Bureau/American Jewish Committee, and the Jewish Community Center, with local Jewish organizations serving as co-sponsors. The entire community is invited to attend at no charge.

Yom HaZikaron, the day on which Israel honors its fallen soldiers and war veterans, will be observed with a memorial service on Tuesday, April 24 at 7 pm in the White Theatre at the Jewish Community Campus. The service, sponsored by the Israel committee of the Jewish Federation, will feature IDF Officer Oren Zini from Ft. Leavenworth. Yom HaZikaron immediately before Israel Independence Day is intended to remind Israel and all of us of the price paid for independence and of what was achieved with the soldiers' sacrifice.

Yom HaAtzmaut, Israel's Independence Day, falls this year on Thursday, April 26. It will be celebrated from 5:30 pm to 8 pm at Congregation Beth Shalom. Featuring children's activities, Israeli food and entertainment, the event is open to the public for free, with food available for a nominal fee. This community-wide celebration is brought to you by the Jewish Federation, and is co-sponsored by area synagogues and Jewish agencies. For more information, contact jewishkansascity.org.
