We are so excited to begin our life with the CBS family

Shalom!

My wife, Annie, our children, Gavi, Ellie and Dani, and I are so excited to begin our life with the CBS family. We can't wait to begin meeting people at synagogue on Shabbat, or exercising at the JCC, or just around town. I will be in the office starting the third week of July, and if you are around, I'd love to see you at the synagogue or for a cup of coffee.

The summer months are known for their LACK of Jewish holidays. I would like to suggest that there is one Jewish holiday that we often overlook – the Fourth of July. "What?" you ask, "That's an American holiday! How can Fourth of July be a Jewish holiday?"

As anyone who has lived outside of America can testify – the Jewish people are blessed by the existence of the United States of America. The United States was the first nation to extend full rights to its Jewish citizens. With a few notable exceptions, America has had few instances of state-sponsored anti-Semitism. We as Jews have so much to be grateful for the United States: the defeat of the Nazis, the recognition and support of the State of Israel, and unprecedented freedom to live freely as Jews. All of these (and many more...) are reasons to celebrate this July 4th and express gratitude – not just as Americans, but also as Jews.

I point this out, because I believe that our Judaism isn't meant to be simply tucked away at synagogue, Hebrew School or Day School. Our tradition gives us a toolkit for celebration, and seeing the world through a unique set of eyes.

I look forward to meeting you in the days and weeks ahead. I hope that you have a fun and a meaningful summer!

B'Shalom,

Rabbi David M. Glickman

Tisha B'Av

This year B'nai Jehudah will host Tisha B'Av evening study and reading of Eicha, the Book of Lamentations. Maariv will begin at 8:15 pm, Saturday, July 28 to be followed by readings and reflections by community members and area rabbis. Participating congregations include: Beth Shalom, Beth Torah, B'nai Jehudah, Kol Ami, Ohev Sholom and Temple Israel. For other opportunities to hear Eicha, please see offerings available at KI or BIAV.

For Jews around the world, Tisha B'Av (ninth day of Av) traditionally commemorates the destruction of the first and second Temples, which both occurred on that day. The First Temple was destroyed by the Babylonians in 586 B.C.E. and the Second Temple by the Romans in 70 C.E. Over the centuries since, however, this date has become an occasion of mourning and remembrance for the many tragedies experienced by the Jewish people throughout our history. During the three week period preceding this date, weddings and similar celebrations are not permitted, and the same kind of restrictions observed on Yom Kippur are observed on the day of Tisha B'Av itself.

Revamping our Youth Committee

We are revamping our Youth Committee! Are you a KCUSY alum, concerned parent or community volunteer looking for a place to make a significant difference in the Youth Department? KCUSY needs you!

The Youth Commission is a WORKING board whose mission is to enhance, sustain and grow the department of Youth Activities at Congregation Beth Shalom. Members are required to volunteer for Purim carnival, including adult chairs of specific work areas, attend the annual kickoff lunch in the fall, help plan, cater and attend the annual Installations Kabbalat Shabbat and dinner in the spring of each year. Members will solicit benefactors for Purim carnival-KCUSYs only annual fundraiser as well as attend approximately 2 meetings annually. This is a smattering of the many ways you may help the youth department thrive!

If you already sit on the youth commission, we would like to request that you contact Stef Williams to indicate your willingness to continue. If this committee sounds like the opportunity to give to the Beth Shalom community that you have been searching for, please also contact Stef to indicate your willingness.

Live in the sunshine, swim the sea, drink the wild air

To quote Ralph Waldo Emerson, "live in the sunshine, swim the sea, drink the wild air." I hope that each and every one of you is enjoying a wonderfully relaxing summer.

I know that by the time you read this message you will have received your membership renewals for next year. We hope that many of you will consider stepping up to the next payment level which helps us to help others. I urge you to take advantage of the new 12 month payment plan that begins in July for smaller monthly payments.

A few thoughts for a summer day...

Synagogue life at CBS can offer much to you if you take advantage of it. Membership gives you a sense of belonging; it is human nature to want to feel connected to something.

In fact, this is a basic necessity of life.

Synagogue life at CBS affords us the opportunity to learn, to challenge and to explore our religion; it is our chance to live life Jewishly. Synagogue life at CBS gives us the chance to give back; our Sisterhood offers us the chance to feel the spirit of Tikkun Olam with our Warm-Up America project, Ronald McDonald Family Room Lunches, Safehome, Children's place, anti-bullying project and more.

Synagogue life at CBS gives parents a chance to enroll their children in our Rose Family Early Childhood Center, Polsky Religious School or Kadima, USY, and scouts.

Synagogue life at CBS gives us the opportunity to make new friends or connect with old ones by joining Sisterhood, Men's Club and Steppin'

Out.

Synagogue life at CBS offers you a front row seat at life's smachot and the knowledge that when you need us, we will be here for you.

For 134 years CBS has been a presence in this great community, and we plan on being here for many generations to come with a little help from our friends (You).

Linda Gurin at the Front Desk

Always available to help, Linda Gurin spends at least one day each week in the CBS office. "What the synagogue gave to me I had to give back, and the best way was to volunteer in any way I could," she states. Linda credits her mother, a former CBS volunteer, as her role model.

Marcy Rydell doing Mitzvot with my fellow congregants

As immediate Past President of Sisterhood, co-chair of the Lechem Committee and member of the Hesed committee, Marcy Rydell stays busy volunteering at CBS. She takes pleasure in the friendships she acquires while volunteering. She particularly enjoys "the chance to perform mitzvot with my fellow congregants."

Linda Bell staying connected in a meaningful way

Linda Bell, treasurer of Sisterhood, sees volunteering as an opportunity to learn and grow. "There are many benefits to volunteering," Linda says. "Sharing ideas, perspectives, learning new skills and developing a sense of teamwork, all of these enable me to stay connected to CBS in a meaningful way."

CBS VOLUNTEERS: DIFFERENT REASONS TO BE INVOLVED

Harold Schlozman thanking God for the many blessings

An avid volunteer, Harold Schlozman participates in numerous activities including leading Minchah/Maariv services at Village Shalom and membership in the Chesed and Lechem Committees. "Reaching out to others is my way of thanking God for His many blessings and allows me to widen my relationship with God and the people around me."

Jane Klaiber able to contribute and that's what's important to me

Working for the Scroll committee is a "perfect fit" for Jane Klaiber who works full time and lives in rural Louisburg. She researches and writes articles at home on her off hours but stays connected to CBS by volunteering. "I'm able to contribute, and that's what's important to me."

Billy Silverman enjoys the young and older generations

For Billy Silverman, assistant scout leader for Troop 61 and a re-energizer of Men's Club, volunteering at CBS is a family affair. "Each of my three children have led services on Saturday morning and they enjoy being able to show that young people at CBS can take part as much as older generations."

David Sosland look forward to the challenge

David Sosland, chairman of the Cemetery Committee, recognizes the importance that Judaism places on caring for the deceased. "We owe so much to those who are interred at Mt. Carmel Cemetery. It's a privilege to care for their final resting place. There is so much to be done; I look forward to the challenge."

CAMP REPORT -- Camp is up and running, and we are having such a blast!

We have already planted our summer crops in our garden and harvested peas, cherry tomatoes, broccoli, carrots and potatoes! The kids loved them and they made great snacks! We have also enjoyed the singing group, the LALAs, and the Stable T Farms petting zoo!

Some other camp activities include:

- Every Friday we enjoy Shabbat singing with our friends to get ready for Shabbat.
- We love water play in the sprinklers and wading pools.
- We create awesome art projects!

In July we will enjoy the Sugar Free All Stars, a singing group from Oklahoma who are traveling in the greater Kansas City area, and Barbara Fields will be teaching the children about ladybugs because our theme is Bugs and Books. We will honor the Olympic Games during our last two weeks of camp.

Easy ways to bring Judaism rituals on your summer trip.

As you begin packing for a summer trip, there are easy ways to bring Judaism rituals along with you.

- Put together a Shabbat bag with candle-holders, candles, a Kiddush cup and a small bottle of juice. You can get bread or rolls for saying the motzi. For Havdalah, all you need is two Hanukkah candles, juice, and spices.
- Say a blessing or bracha for so many things as you travel. A blessing is a very simple way of inviting God into your midst and begins with the traditional bracha formula of Baruch atah Adonai Elohaynu Melech ha'olam, "Praised are You, Adonai our God, King of the Universe," and then continues with the subject of the blessing.
- In our siddur, Sim Shalom there are several pages of blessings. It is nice to travel with a siddur which has all the blessings you need for Shabbat, Havdalah, eating, and for the wonders of nature. If you do not have these blessings, stop in the office and we will be more than happy to give you a copy.

Use your experiences over the summer and your time together as a family to make Judaism a regular part of what you do, no matter where you are. Teach your children to appreciate nature, to praise God and bring Shabbat with you no matter where you are. Have a safe and happy summer.

Open House & "Back to Shul" Picnic August 19

Help us kick off the fall season Sunday, August 19 as we welcome Rabbi Glickman, his family and all of your old friends and family at our "Back to Shul" picnic! This will also be an open house for all Prospective Members, so if you know of a family interested in joining our community, please let us know.

The evening will begin at 5 p.m. with Minchah in room 108-109. There will also be a regular Minyan that evening at 6 p.m. at Village Shalom.

A bouncy house, with a water feature (wear swimsuits!) to entertain the youth will be wet and wild at 5:15 p.m.! Hot dogs, hamburgers and sides will be served at 6 p.m. Please see the enclosed flyer for further details. Reservations are due by Monday, August 10.

The Men's Club and Sisterhood will set up, cook and break down this event. Congregants are encouraged to join in a festive experience. For more information or to help with the picnic, contact Stefanie Williams at swilliams@bethshalomkc.org or 913-647-7269.

Tomato and Cucumber Salad

Cut up tomatoes, cucumbers and lettuce, and place in a bowl. Add parsley and squeeze lemon juice (remove seeds) into bowl over the lettuce, tomatoes and cucumbers. Add olive oil and garlic salt and mix. Taste to see if it is the desired taste you want. You may have to play with the taste. Serve for a perfect summer salad. Yummy!

Fresh tomatoes
Fresh cucumbers
Two lemons
4 or 5 T fresh or jar parsley
Romaine lettuce
1/4 cup olive oil
2 T of garlic salt

Sisterhood Book Club Meets August 22

Editorial Comments

July is a month of beginnings for CBS. On July 1 the congregation's fiscal year began. Dues packets have been mailed to our congregants. In July our new officers and board of directors begin to guide our congregation. Our new rabbi, David Glickman, begins his tenure. We need to support CBS in many ways; make certain our yearly dues are paid per our dues plan, support our officers and board and communicate with them if we have concerns and become part of our great volunteer base. Most of all we welcome Rabbi Glickman and his family to CBS and into our community.
