From the Rabbi's Study

"Be Conservative"

It is clear to me that Beth Shalom has a real future, but that the nature of that future is yet unknown.

I pray that Beth Shalom will be what it was always meant to be: a Conservative synagogue community which educates its members of all ages, exemplifies a fully lived traditional Judaism in the modern world, and is firmly committed to the norms and standards of the Conservative movement as they develop.

As our volunteer leadership continues to do the sacred work of future thinking, I note certain trends to be avoided and certain historical facts to be remembered.

Synagogues Matter: Synagogues are the bedrock of Jewish survival, continuity and affiliation. Despite the buzz, it is actual membership in congregations which has always been the best predictor of a Jew's likely support of Federation, JCC, JFS and education. It is the core, the denominational Jew, who has passed and will pass Judaism on to the future. Therefore, it is the core that requires the most attention and communal support.

Content Matters: Judaism is a religion of content. Learning, Living, and Teaching this content is the primary purpose of the synagogue's membership, and the essence of our covenant with God.

Differences Matter: Each denomination's educational needs are different from each other, and need to be supported in parallel, not merged into a neutral communal form. For us, this means Hebrew language, and complete gender equality in our performance of Mitzvot, communal prayer and education. This is true of Pre-School, Religious School and Day School. In each setting our children must learn and live not just Judaism, but our uniquely compelling approach to Judaism.

Fun Matters: It is absolutely necessary to continue to change how we teach. But it would be misguided to eliminate what we need to teach in favor of mere experiences. We must not ignore the denominational differences in the name of informal education, or we lose the baby with the bath water. Camp Ramah, among many examples of excellence, is our best model.

The Staff-Lay Partnership Matters: We have broken down our staffing to create the ability to rebuild. A congregation with our many and varied needs will require a partnership of competent senior staff and volunteers working as equals in knowledge and authority. Staff, volunteers and trustees must have well defined roles and re-enforce each other's roles positively. Proper training for each of those roles is the only way to build the dynamic future which we all dream of for Beth Shalom.

Israel Matters: Israel is the ultimate future of the Jewish world. We must be more educated, more supportive, more involved with the people and future of Israel and in building our Masorti movement there.

God matters: Your Jewish relationship with God is at the core of everything we can ever be. It is not only who we are, but "why" we are. All our troubles and challenges will be all right - if we control less, learn more and seek the good in all people through a personal and communal relationship with The Holy One.

I have been privileged to be your rabbi, although for too short a time. Be strong and of good courage. If each of the members of Beth Shalom shows a commitment to be firmly involved at all levels, this sacred community has a bright future in front of it.

Kol Tuv... All Good Things.

Youth Installations & Shabbat Dinner, A New Tradition by Stef Williams

I am in awe. It's amazing how a little idea can turn into an incredible tradition. As calendar dates were hard to come by this year, Youth Shabbat kept getting put off. The KCUSYers really wanted to have Youth Shabbat as it is a wonderful way for the congregation to see them and show off a little bit!! The only date we could find was Friday, May 6. As this was two days after Elections, and just a few days before Installations, Marla Brockman came up with the idea of combining the two! And so, a new KCUSY tradition was born.

The evening began with the Installation of the 2011-12 KCUSY Chapter Executive Board at 5:15 pm. I spoke to each outgoing board member, and I'm proud to say only a few tears were shed this year! It is an incredibly emotional time, especially this year, as I had five families ending their official KCUSY careers with their youngest child now graduating. As each officer was installed, his/her candle was lit. We finished installations right before minyan, and the candles of the new board were used to light the candles welcoming in Shabbat. Another beautiful tradition began.

We planned a family-style Shabbat dinner, complete with freshly baked challah, salad, roasted chicken, orzo casserole and dessert. That morning, we had a dozen parent volunteers working in the kitchen and setting tables. One mom even made a cookie cake ahead of time, even though she couldn't be at the event. We did not charge for the dinner, but welcomed donations and with the amounts we have already received, I am confident we will more than cover our costs! We had 85 people attend our Shabbat Dinner.

It was lovely to see families joining together for this special Shabbat.

Recipes were shared as everyone

oohed and aaahed over the meal. The feeling was one of community as we davened, ate, cleaned and looked towards next year together. Many of the youth came up to me to say "We need to do this more often next year!" As we move to Lamar, we will begin many new traditions. I just hope the wonderful feeling I felt following this dinner can be felt by even more of our congregation next year!

Executively Speaking

A Bright and Hopeful Future Beth Shalom, Worth It!

It was one year ago that I was asked to step up and lead Beth Shalom. I knew there would be many problems to solve, yet I accepted the job. When I met with the Board of Directors for the first time, I shared with everyone the known challenges for the coming year.

Your Board accepted these challenges and made the tough decisions necessary to get us moving toward a sound financial future. They have worked tirelessly on many fronts to accomplish this. It would have been easier to sit idly by and complain, but, these men and women volunteered their time to improve Beth Shalom.

On Monday, June 13th, you are invited to our annual Congregational meeting in Goldsmith Hall at the Lamar campus. Please join me at 7 pm as we hear from the Long Range Task Force, update everyone on our financial status and install next year's Board of Directors. What a dedicated group of people!

We owe each of the members of the Board our thanks. With their leadership and your participation – along with guidance from our Past Presidents and Life Board members – Beth Shalom's future is hopeful and bright.

Mt. Carmel Cemetery, Just a Bit of History

We have had a number of questions recently about the relationship of Mt. Carmel Cemetery to Congregation Beth Shalom. Are they one and the same, or are they separate entities? Mt. Carmel was founded by our earliest congregants in 1885, with a view toward the future. We have enough space to support our needs for the next 145 years.

Our employees, the cemetery committee and Board of Directors of CBS are constantly working to expand, improve and redefine the role of Mt. Carmel in our ever growing, ever changing congregation. Mt. Carmel is financed by a separate account with monies directed solely towards its benefit. This account must stay above a certain amount as mandated by the State of Missouri. Three sources of income support permanent maintenance: investment income, plot sales and donations.

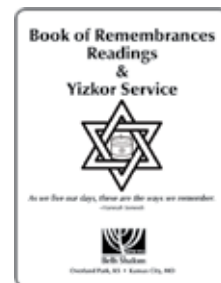

For more information, please refer to our website, www.bethshalomkc.org, then click on the Mt. Carmel Cemetery link across the top of the screen.

High Holy Day Yizkor Book

This year the High Holy Days begin with Erev Rosh HaShanah on Wednesday, September 28.

Now is the time for you to submit your information to memorialize your loved ones in our annual Yizkor Book. You can submit your details and pay for the listing on our website. Go to www.bethshalomkc.org, then click on the Yizkor Book link which is located in the Quick Links box on the right side of the screen (or click here to go directly to the form.) Follow the directions to submit your information and payment. It is quick, direct and to the point!

Kiddush Korner

A wonderful and significant way to commemorate a simchah, honor a friend or relative or memorialize a loved one is to sponsor a Kiddush Luncheon. For details, contact Norman, 913-647-7283 or nlevitan@bethshalomkc.org. The following Shabbat Kiddushim are being sponsored by:

June 4 -

Herman Mondschein in celebration of his 90th birthday.

June 18 - CBS Sisterhood in support of our community.

If you prefer to submit your listing in writing, please use the enclosed salmon colored form. The deadline for submissions is Monday, July 18. For additional information contact Jill at 913-647-7281.

Ending One Year... Planning for the Next

Our 2010-11 academic year has ended, and it is not too early to think about the 2011-12 school year which will begin with Visiting Day on Friday, August 26. The RFEC has wonderful students, terrific families and extraordinary teachers. Our staff has a total of 139 combined years of teaching our students. We have only one teacher who has been with us for one year. Thank you to our wonderful teachers for inspiring our students, their families and other teachers, to bring out the best in everyone and make our school one of the top preschools in Kansas City.

Each year we add new programs, change the curriculum and become more efficient as a school. Our teachers embrace change with state of the art teaching methods and content. They have special abilities which combine and create a unique and talented staff. For information regarding our 2011-12 school year, see our website or contact Judy Jacks Berman.

Hebrew High's Innovative Learning Approach

During the past school year, the 8th, 9th and 10th grade students of Beth Shalom's Hebrew High School, housed at our Lamar campus, studied the Holocaust for two trimesters, and genocide in Bosnia, Rwanda and Darfur during the third trimester. Their instructor was Marlene Katz.

The students engaged in an advanced study of the Holocaust, which included survivors' stories researched and portrayed by Katz in character. During the study of genocide in Bosnia, Rwanda and Darfur, students studied the warning signs, the acts of violence, the responses to the violence of genocide, and how the countries are being rebuilt.

The culmination of the study was a video created by the class that discusses genocide; whereby the students made a plea to the world to stop violence in all countries and learn to live in peace. This video is now posted on YouTube. To view this video go to www.Youtube.com and search for "Students speak out against Genocide" by the Polsky Religious School.
