Participate in a Conversation About the Future of Our Shul

On the evening of July 1st, we will hold our Congregational Annual Meeting. Traditionally this is time to elect our Board of Directors. In addition to the election, we wanted to take the opportunity to update the congregation on several important issues and to address congregants' questions.

By the time of our meeting we are hopeful that we will have closed on the sale of the Wornall Campus. It is an ideal time to update the congregation on the shul's financial position. As a continuation of our strategic planning process, Gina Kaiser has been chairing a committee studying the future of our shul's facilities. Gina will report on the committee's progress.

We also have been studying various alternative dues structures that are being considered and implemented at our sister Conservative synagogues across North America. We would like to have a dialogue about some of these ideas.

The Board would love to see all of our congregants at this important meeting.

* A qualified person for the Board of Directors is a General Member in good standing who is not a member of the Board or similar body of any other synagogue in the Greater Kansas City area. A qualified person for an officer position must meet certain requirements.

From the Rabbi's Study

A Jewish Summer – More Than Just Camp

Our goal at Congregation Beth Shalom – for young people and adults -- is to create literate Jews who carry with them the joy of being Jewish and the self-confidence to make their own Jewish choices wherever they are.

So, I am giving all of our congregants homework for the summer. “What?!!?” you ask, “Homework!?!?” What kind of terrible rabbi gives homework – and on summer vacation no less?

Yes. Here is every congregant's homework assignment: do something Jewish over the summer – preferably away from home – and share it in shul when you get back. My preference is that if you are traveling this summer at all, take one Friday night or Saturday morning and seek out a synagogue for Shabbat services. But it could be ANYTHING – making Havdalah by a beach, having a Shabbat dinner barbecue in the back yard with friends, seeking out kosher food on a family road trip, working on a family tzedakah project before school begins in the Fall.

If there is one message that this assignment will teach, it is this: you are not only Jewish during the school year and when you are at Beth Shalom – you are always Jewish, and you can always make Jewish choices.

This is one of the fundamental lessons of our Jewish learning, and ironically, it is best taught when school is not in session. It can't happen in our Polsky Religious School, at our Rose Family preschool, at the HBHA or in our adult education classes – it can only happen “as you walk along the way” as we read in the Shema.

I hope that everyone has a meaningful and joyful summer vacation, and I look forward to seeing you at synagogue over the summer and in the fall.
Shalom,

David M. Glickman

Mount Carmel News

Matthew Kavanaugh, a Life Scout in Troop 61, recently completed his Eagle Project at Mount Carmel Cemetery. Matthew, his family and the scouts who helped him, completed several projects at the Cemetery including completing a new gravel road and repairing a masonry bridge.

Plots

Plots are available for sale in the interfaith section at Mt. Carmel. Although some have already been sold, now is your opportunity to purchase plots in the location of your choice. This section (as well as other new sections) will be offering garden style headstones often found at other cemeteries.

To receive a copy of the interfaith burial policy that was approved by the Cemetery Committee and Board of Directors, click here or contact the Ritual Office: 913-647-7281.

High Holy Days Begin in September

As we approach 5774, we remember our loved ones who have been called to their eternal rest. One way we can do this is by inscribing them in our Congregation Beth Shalom Yizkor-Remembrance Book. For more than two decades, this book has been published at Beth Shalom, honoring the memories of our loved ones. This book will be used at all four of our Yizkor services.

We are offering five options for Yizkor Book entries. You will be able to pay by check or credit card; by snail mail or online. If you complete the form online, the details will automatically be emailed to our office. To access the online form, click here.

If you have any questions, please call 913-647-7281, to speak with Jill Goldstein, Ritual Coordinator. Due to the early dates for the holidays this year, the deadline for submitting a listing for the 2013-14/5774 Yizkor-Remembrance Book is, Friday, June 28.

KCUSY proudly announces the 2013-14 Chapter Executive Board: President-- Ricardo Zepeda, Executive Vice President-- Moriah Abrams, Membership/Kadima Vice President-- Adena Goldberg, Religion/Education Vice President-- Elana Goldenberg, Social Action/Tikun Olam Vice President-- Jacob Flekier, Communications Vice President-- Sophie Shapiro, Historian-- Joel Gutovitz, Freshman Representative-- Jonah Pellegrino, Senior Representative-- Becca Adler. In addition Jacob Pellegrino will serve on the USY Regional Executive Board as Social Action/Tikun Olam Vice President.

Wanted: Motivated individuals who can give their time and talents to CBS.

We are holding a Volunteer Job Fair on July 1st beginning at 6:00 PM prior to the Congregational Meeting. Our committees will be recruiting; see what interests you.

Att: All Committee Chairs plus Sisterhood and Men's Club-contact Jill Goldstein to run a Job Fair booth at the event. Jill Goldstein 913 647-7281 or jgoldstein@bethshalomkc.org.

Yahrtzeit Tablets...

Because CBS no longer has two boards to display Yahrtzeit tablets, we have a second set of tablets no longer in use. If you would like your loved ones' extra tablets, call the synagogue any time during regular business hours in June, and we will be happy to give you the tablet(s). We cannot mail these. If you cannot come in, contact a friend to pick them up for you or contact Beth Shalom. We can hold your tablets for you.

On June 30, all unclaimed tablets will be recycled.

Sisterhood Book Club Meets July 10

In the ancient English city of Glastonbury, an art restorer has been brutally murdered and a long-lost portrait by Rembrandt mysteriously stolen. Want to learn more? Come to the Sisterhood Book Club, July 10, 7 pm, at the home of Gayle Ranen to discuss The Rembrandt Affair by Daniel Silva. For further details or to be added to the email list, contact Rowena Turk at 913-649-7098 or turk@kc.rr.com.

Looking ahead: dates for future meetings are Oct. 9, Dec. 11, Feb. 12, Apr. 23, & June 25.

Editorial Comments

The theme for Women's League for Conservative Judaism for the coming year is "Mishpachah, the Modern Jewish Family." In my opinion, this theme can be applied to our entire Congregation. Many of us are part of multi-generation families, while others of us are relative newcomers or people with no prior ties to CBS. Together all of us make up a family—a congregational family. A congregational family can operate in the same manner as a traditional family: being there for each other, worshipping together, working together, playing together and helping each other. We need to reach out to each other to become Mishpachah.

Summer Camp and the Living is Easy...and fun!

Did you know that camp at CBS this summer is going to be a blast? All camp activities will revolve around the themes of Sun, Stars, Moon and Planets. Some of the fun goings-on will be a Bounce to the Moon Bounce House, 4th of July Bike Parade and a trip to the moon to learn about the planets. Campers will also work in the RFECEC garden and enjoy eating the veggies they have planted. A special event will be a concert featuring "The Sugar Free All-stars", a great group from Oklahoma, that provides fun and funky music for families.

There is still time to sign up for a fun summer at camp. Contact Judy Jacks Berman for more information at 913-647-7287.

Hyman Brand Kudos to Our CBS Students

By Jill Goldstein, PRS Teacher

Every month I receive an online copy of the Hyman Brand Hebrew Academy's school paper, The Ram Page. In the May edition, it came to my attention that several students in our CBS family were being honored. I thought this would be a great way to say mazal tov—Beth Shalom is proud of you:

National Honor Society inductees: Moriah Abrams, Natalie Cabell, Jacob Pellegrino, Sophia Porter and Max Sosland. All of this year's HBHA inductees are members of our CBS community.

HBHA Juniors recognized with Book Awards for their academic, Judaic, personal service and leadership accomplishments are:

Alex Sher - the Wellesley College Book Award

Sam Sosland - the Jewish Theological Seminary Book Award

CBS Celebrates Miss Norine

After more than two decades as a teacher for Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center, Norine Rosenblum retired from Beth Shalom. Next year, she will be teaching four year olds at Chabad and developing a touring artist program. Hopefully Norine will be back many times to present different artists to the 3-5 year old classes! Please join us in wishing Norine much happiness and success in her future.

What Will Your Legacy Be?

Congregation Beth Shalom has been your spiritual home for many years. You and your family have celebrated, prayed, learned and supported one another in this home. By making a planned gift you can create a permanent endowment to support our synagogue well into the future.

Options include:

Outright Gifts

Give cash, stock, real estate or other assets today.

Charitable Bequests

Make a future gift through your will or trust, and still enjoy your assets today.

Life Insurance Policies

By naming CBS the owner and/or beneficiary of a life insurance policy you can enjoy significant tax benefits during your lifetime. Upon your death a substantial gift will be made to CBS.

Life Income Plans

Through a Charitable Gift Annuity or Charitable Remainder Trust, you can make a donation that will pay your or someone else's income for life or a term of years. Upon the death of the income recipient, the balance will go to CBS.

For more information on how you can support Beth Shalom for generations to come, please contact Harold Kaseff at haroldk@transtitle.com or (913)-859-0530.

Gifts from Qualified Retirement Plans

By naming CBS as a death beneficiary, no taxes will be paid and the full amount of your gift will benefit the synagogue. If you are over 70 ½, you can make a direct distribution from your retirement account to the synagogue, and it will count as a part of your Required Minimum Distribution.

Kosher Reuben Sandwich Shabbat Appetizer

Ingredients:

- 1 pound frozen puff pastry dough (parve), defrosted
- ½ pound Kosher corn beef, sliced
- 1 cup sauerkraut
- mustard
- 1 egg
- poppy seeds (optional)

Preparation:

1. Preheat oven to 350 °F. Line a baking sheet with parchment paper and spray with non-stick spray.
2. Defrost pastry dough according to package directions. Lay out pastry dough flat, and spread mustard on the dough.
3. Slice the corn beef into small cubes. In a skillet, saute the corn beef until heated through. Add the sauerkraut, stirring together until the mixture is well combined and the flavors have mingled. Lay the corn beef and sauerkraut mixture on top of the mustard.
4. Roll the dough up. Brush the roll with egg. Sprinkle with poppy seeds, if desired.
5. Bake at 350 °F for 35-40 minutes, or until browned. Slice into 10-12 servings.

Kiddush Corps Celebrated

On Saturday, May 4, CBS recognized all the past and current members of the Kiddush Corps for their service to our congregants for the past ten years. The current Kiddush Corps began April 24, 2003, under the administration of Jeanette Wishna, z"l, and led by Gertie Epstein and Rhea Salasche. With the move to our current location at 142nd and Lamar, Barbara M. Katz assumed the leadership role.

At the May 4th Kiddush luncheon, the husbands of the current members of the Kiddush Corps, not only sponsored the event, but prepared all the food and desserts. The sponsors included Erwin Abrams, Larry Kalender, Harold Kaseff, Michael Katz, Ben Rubin and Neal Singer. Rabbi David Glickman is shown assisting Harold Kaseff on Friday in preparing the lox trays.
