Home for the Holidays

We are excited to be "Home for the Holidays" with our first ever High Holidays at our Lamar campus. This is a unique opportunity to spend the most sacred time of the year in our own sacred space. It promises to be cozy, but it will also be a chance to grow spiritually together as we combine Beth Shalom tradition with some new and exciting programming.

Here is what you can look forward to:

All services will be held at 14200 Lamar Avenue except for Tashlikh

ORDER YOUR LULAV/ETROG SET NOW

The holiday of Sukkot begins the evening of Sunday, September 23. In order to ensure prompt delivery, orders for lulav/etrog sets need to be turned in to the synagogue office by noon on Friday, August 31. Prices range from $30-$55/set. Orders can be placed online on our website or by filling out an order form and enclosing a check. We will send you an email when your order is ready to be picked up in the administration office.

In addition, the first 10 families to RSVP to jgoldstein@bethshalomkc.org that their children (under the age of Bar/Bat Mitzvah) will be attending BOTH the 1st and 2nd days of Sukkot will receive a free lulav/etrog set to take home at the end of services on September 25. For more information, or to have an order form emailed to you, contact Jill at jgoldstein@bethshalomkc.org.

NOTE: Our "Traditional" Service is like previous years' services in the White Theatre and our "Social Hall and Rimon" Services are like previous Social Hall Services at the JCC.

Upcoming mail will include information on High Holiday Tickets, Youth Services, childcare, parking, lulav/etrog order forms and exact sermon times for each service. Watch your email and snail mail.

Voting our Values in Every Election

The Jewish tradition has an ambivalent relationship with governmental power. On one hand Pirkei Avot tells us to be wary of the government. On the other hand, we have specific blessings for when we see a head of state. The Torah has explicit descriptions of the values a king should have, and the Talmud is rife with narratives of interactions between the rabbis of Babylonia and the Land of Israel having interactions with both local officials as well as ruling emperors.

Throughout history, Jews have been the subject of the laws that have governed the lands where we've lived. We have also tried to have relationships with the individuals in power so that we could try to be active citizens protecting the Jewish community.

No country has a longer, unbroken history of Jewish suffrage than the United States of America. I do not think that the disproportionate number of Jewish elected officials and appointed judges reflect anything inherent about the Jews. What it does reflect, though, is a community that has expressed its gratitude through active voting.

I look at voting as using a gift. When a relative or a loved one gives you a precious gift, the best way to express gratitude is by using the gift often. Not only does it demonstrate to the gift-giver your gratitude, it also makes you think warmly of the individual who gave you the gift. The way that we can express gratitude for the unique religious freedom we have enjoyed as a community in America is to show up at every election possible.

National elections, and national Presidential elections in particular, gather the most headlines and foster the most opinion pieces in the news. Local and state elections, though, likely affect our every-day lives even more than national elections. Furthermore, by being involved in local and state civic leadership, it sends a message to our neighbors that we care deeply about the quality of living for all the residents of the Greater Kansas City area.

- July 17 was the last day to register to vote.
- You can view a sample ballot for your races beginning on July 19 at <https://voter.jocoelection.org/>
- To vote by mail, complete an Application for an Advance Voting Ballot by Mail and fax to 913-791-8931 or mail to Johnson County Election Office, 2101 E. Kansas City Road, Olathe, KS 66061.
- The primary election for Kansas is on August 7.

This year marks 242 years since Jewish men have been able to vote in the United States. It has been 150 years (since the passage of the 14th Amendment) for African American men to be able to vote. This August it will be 98 years since all women in America have been able to vote. Let's show appreciation for this gift: and use it.

Life Lesson 11: Let's Forgive and Move On

"The bravest and the smartest thing you can do in a bad situation is to forgive and move on. Don't allow grudges and grievances to add to the weight you carry on the road to your own success."

These words by thought leader Lolly Daskal aren't telling us to forget the tough things in life that happen to us; she is telling us to forgive those who have offended us. When we carry the weight of allowing a grudge to take over part of our mind, we are not able to give 100% to the work we do or the people we love.

Sometimes we are the offended; sometimes we are the offender. Sometimes, we may say stupid things; sometimes, we may say things stupidly. I am sure there are times when no one should have been offended. We cannot change the past; we can only look forward to the future.

It has taken the accumulation of many gray hairs to realize I have no time for hate; I have no time to hold grudges. Every day of my life is a learning experience, whether that experience is positive or negative. None of us has the luxury of living in a perfect world. In life, good people may cause physical or emotional harm to us. People make mistakes. After all, people are human.

We always have choices to make. We can remove those whom we believe have offended us from our lives, salvage what we can of a relationship, or rebuild it. But, before we can make any choice, we need to make the decision to move forward. Someone whose advice I often seek out taught me that allowing a grudge to live in your head is to allow a third party to live there. At least for me, I know there isn't enough room in my head for another person.

So, whether we are the offender or offended, we need to get over whatever has hurt or is bothering us; let's get over our negative feelings about whomever has hurt us. If we do not have control over how we feel, how we feel will control us. Let's put all this negativity behind us. Let's all move on. Let's look forward to where we are going, not where we have been. Let us all learn to forgive.

As radio personality Bernard Meltzer said, "When you forgive, you in no way change the past - but you sure do change the future."

School Beginnings for 2018-2019 Year

by JUDY JACKS BERMAN

Director

jjb@bethshalomkc.org | 913-647-7287

As we say goodbye to the end of summer and all of its fun memories, we anxiously await a new school year. The 2018-19 school year begins Monday, August 27, 2018, and goes until Friday, May 24, 2019. The children at Rose Family Early Childhood learn about Jewish holidays and traditions, create art projects, engage in interactive play, participate in circle time activities and the list goes on. In addition, we offer a weekly music class, and Shabbat singing with Rabbi Glickman and Hazzan Ben-Yehuda for all ages. This school year, we will bring in a variety of special activities, which include a petting farm, bounce houses, musical concerts, an interactive drum session and much more. Spaces are still available in all age groups. Our Toddler class is for children who will be 18 months by August 31, 2018, our Mini School is for children who will be 2 years old on or before August 31, 2018, our Threes Class is for children who will be 3 years old on or before August 31, 2018, and our Pre-K class is for children who will be 4 years old on or before August 31, 2018. Spread the word about our wonderful preschool with friends and family. For every referral who chooses to enroll at our school, we will give you a $100 credit on your account or a $100 Amazon gift card. We are looking forward to a terrific school year.

Immediate Past President Remarks

by RICHARD SIMON

Now that Art Federman has officially taken over as President of Congregation Beth Shalom, and I've had a few weeks to relish in the role of Immediate Past President, I wanted to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their support and help during my two-year term. I must admit that when I started two years ago, I didn't think that the time would go so fast, but it certainly did. I first want to thank my family for allowing me the time to take on this terrific opportunity, and I really do mean opportunity. I also want to thank all the staff that supports the Synagogue with great passion, including Bernie, Judy, Stef, Maggie, Trinity, Pam, Jill, Juan and both Oscars. Jim and Bob at the Cemetery are great assets for our Kehillah. The Rabbi and Hazzan, as our clergy are also second to none, a talented team with an exciting vision for our future. I also want to thank the Board of Directors for their dedication and support.

I have always considered Congregation Beth Shalom to be my home, and a large extended family. This view has certainly been enforced with all the support that I have received during my term. My goal was to attend as many activities as possible so that I could witness as many places where Beth Shalom touches us. This immediately brings a smile as I think back on all the magnificent events that I witnessed. I've seen the congregation support all the life-cycle events, and have seen the great support that our community has been able to provide. I look forward to the future, and can't wait to see all it has in store for all of us.

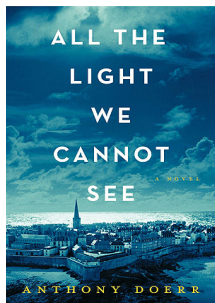

Rose Family Early Childhood Education Center-Camp

Beth Shalom kindergarteners are enjoying summer camp this year.

Miss Cathy and Miss Debbie's class have been learning about nature through birds, bugs and plants. A favorite activity was making Worm View Wonder Kits! Each child was given a plastic container, sand, oatmeal and dirt. The children placed two worms in their container to watch and study. The children finished the project by releasing the worms into the Beth Shalom School garden.

Another highlight was painting bird houses to take home. Cathy made this possible by gathering a donation for materials from Home Depot. Neil Newman built and constructed the bird houses. Thank you to everyone for another fun-filled summer camp!

Parashat HaShavua For more information, contact Svetlana Sorkin at 913-393-1715 or saraliorasedu@hotmail.com.

Parashat HaShavua is an ongoing, monthly program taking place every third Shabbat of the month at 9:00 am in the conference room. The goal of this program is to engage its participants in a stimulating discussion of the weekly torah portion in a friendly atmosphere, where the difference of opinions is respected and questions are encouraged.

The next session will take place on August 18, when PARASHAT DEVARIM will be discussed. An informal atmosphere and deep level of discussion are the trademarks of this gathering. No prior experience is required, and everybody is welcome to join.
